
HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

URGING THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION TO EXPAND THE ADVANCEMENT VIA INDIVIDUAL DETERMINATION (AVID) PROGRAM BY OFFERING MORE
AVID ELECTIVE COURSES IN PUBLIC HIGH SCHOOLS.

- 1 WHEREAS, the Advancement Via Individual Determination
2 (AVID) program is a college-readiness system designed to
3 increase the number of students who enroll in four-year
4 colleges; and
5
- 6 WHEREAS, although AVID serves all students, it focuses on 7 the least-served students in the academic middle who have a
8 desire to attend college and demonstrate a willingness to work
9 hard; and
10
- 11 WHEREAS, the AVID program helps high school students better
12 prepare for college expectations by offering a rigorous program
13 of instruction in academic survival and college entry skills;
14 and
15
- 16 WHEREAS, AVID students enroll in the program as an elective
17 class and learn organizational and study skills, work on 18 critical thinking, receive academic help from peers and college
19 tutors, and participate in enrichment and motivational
20 activities; and
21
- 22 WHEREAS, nationally, AVID has been adopted in nearly 4,500
23 schools, and is available in sixteen countries or territories;
24 and
25
- 26 WHEREAS, of the 2009 AVID graduates, a total of ninety-two 27 per cent planned to attend college, with sixty per cent planning
28 to attend four-year colleges and thirty-two per cent planning to 29 attend two-year colleges; and

WHEREAS, in the 2009-2010 school year, there are fifty-eight AVID sites in Hawaii, including nineteen high schools and five combination high schools; and

WHEREAS, if the AVID program were more widely available in Hawaii public high schools, more students could be prepared for the challenges of college; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the Twenty-fifth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2010, the Senate concurring, that the Department of Education is urged to expand the AVID program by offering more AVID elective courses in the public high schools; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that certified copies of this Concurrent Resolution be transmitted to the Superintendent of Education and the Chairperson of the Board of Education.
