
HOUSE RESOLUTION

URGING PRESIDENT BARACK OBAMA TO SELECT A LOCATION IN HAWAII AS THE SITE FOR HIS PRESIDENTIAL LIBRARY.

1 WHEREAS, a presidential library is a repository for 2 preserving and making publicly accessible the papers, records,
3 artifacts, and other historical materials of a President of the 4 United States; and

5
6 WHEREAS, historians and other researchers studying our 7 country's presidents and history rely upon presidential 8 libraries as important sources of information; and

9
10 WHEREAS, presidential libraries provide a broad range of 11 educational opportunities for students through programs designed 12 to introduce students to American history and the presidency; 13 and

14
15 WHEREAS, public programs that include conferences, 16 symposia, and forums that highlight new scholarship about the 17 presidents and American history, are often offered by 18 presidential libraries; and

19
20 WHEREAS, Barack Obama, the forty-fourth President of the 21 United States, was born and raised in Hawaii; and

22
23 WHEREAS, it is a matter of great state pride that President
24 Obama is the first Hawaii-born citizen to hold that high office; 25 and

26
27 WHEREAS, a presidential library in Hawaii would provide the 28 people of Hawaii with access to the documents and artifacts of 29 the Obama administration and a significant piece of our nation's 30 history; now, therefore,

31
32 BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the 33 Twenty-fifth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session
34 of 2010, that President Barack Obama is urged to select a 35 location in Hawaii as the site of his presidential library; and
