
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO WORKERS' COMPENSATION.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. Section 386-86, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 2 amended to read as follows:

3 "§386-86 Proceedings upon claim; hearings. (a) If a 4 claim for compensation is made, the director shall [~~make such~~] 5 further [~~investigation as deemed necessary~~] investigate the 6 facts surrounding the claim and render a decision in writing
7 within sixty days after the conclusion of the hearing awarding 8 or denying compensation, stating the findings of fact and 9 conclusions of law. The director may extend the due date for 10 decisions for good cause provided all parties agree. The 11 decision shall be filed with the record of the proceedings and a 12 copy of the decision shall be sent immediately to each party.

13 (b) When the employer denies compensability or indicates 14 compensability is not accepted, the employer, within thirty 15 calendar days of the employer's denial of, or indication to not 16 accept, compensability, which includes the period of time that 17 the employer is conducting any internal investigation, shall

1 submit a written report to the director and the claimant that 2 describes the employer's internal investigation and supporting 3 details that substantiate the employer's denial of, or 4 indication to not accept, compensability. The due date for the 5 employer's written report shall not be extended.

6 ~~[(b)]~~ (c) The hearing shall be informal and shall afford 7 the parties a full and fair opportunity to present the facts and 8 evidence to be considered. Hearings under this section shall 9 not be subject to chapter 91. No stenographic or tape recording
10 shall be allowed.

11 ~~[(e)]~~ (d) The order of presentation shall not alter the 12 burden of proof, including the burden of producing evidence and 13 the burden of persuasion. The party or parties who bear these 14 burdens shall be determined by law consistent with the purposes
15 of this section.

16 ~~[(d)]~~ (e) Should the injured employee or injured
17 employee's representative, or the employer or employer's 18 representative fail to appear at the hearing, the director may 19 issue a decision based on the information on file. The decision 20 shall be final unless appealed pursuant to section 386-87. In 21 all other circumstances, a decision shall not be rendered by the

1 director without a hearing, which may not be waived by the 2 parties.

3 [~~(e)~~] (f) For the purpose of obtaining any matter, not 4 privileged, which is relevant to the subject matter involved in 5 the pending action, the director, upon application and for good
6 cause shown, may order the taking of relevant testimony by 7 deposition, upon oral examination, or written interrogatories,
8 or by other means of discovery in the manner and effect
9 prescribed by the Hawaii rules of civil procedure; provided that 10 when the claimant's deposition is taken, the employer shall pay 11 for the cost to the claimant of attending the deposition, any 12 costs associated with having the deposition transcribed and 13 copied, and any and all reasonable attorney's fees and costs
14 incurred by the claimant with respect to the deposition.

15 [~~(f)~~] (g) Subpoenas requiring the attendance of witnesses
16 at a hearing before a hearings officer or for the taking of a
17 deposition or the production of documentary evidence from any 18 place within the State at any designated place of hearing may be 19 issued by the director or a duly authorized representative. The 20 employer shall serve a claimant with a copy of a medical record
21 subpoena unless the employer has previously obtained the 22 claimant's authorization to examine the claimant's medical

1 records. Should the claimant subpoena medical records, the 2 employer shall be served a copy. The party subpoenaing the 3 records shall provide these records within fifteen calendar days
4 of their receipt to the employer, claimant, and the special
5 compensation fund if a joinder has been filed, or their 6 representatives. These records shall be submitted by the party
7 requesting the subpoena to the director within seven calendar
8 days of the date of the notice of hearing or upon request by the 9 director. A party who desires to enforce the director's
10 subpoena shall seek enforcement from a court of competent 11 jurisdiction."

12 SECTION 2. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed
13 and stricken. New statutory material is underscored.

14 SECTION 3. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.

15

Report Title:

Proceedings; Investigation; Decision Due Date; Worker Claim

Description:

Requires an employer who denies compensability, or indicates compensability is not accepted, to submit a written report to the director and claimant within thirty days of its denial of, or indication not to accept, compensability that substantiates its denial of compensability; prohibits the due date for the employer's written report to be extended. (SD1)

The summary description of legislation appearing on this page is for informational purposes only and is not legislation or evidence of legislative intent.

