A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO PUBLIC SAFETY.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that the over-
2 representation of native Hawaiians in the criminal justice
3 system is an issue that has not been adequately addressed.

4 The legislature further finds that any racial or ethnic
5 disparity within the State's criminal justice system fosters
6 public mistrust of the system and impedes the State's ability to 7 promote public safety. A commitment to a fair criminal justice
8 system and functioning democratic society requires addressing 9 these existing racial and ethnic disparities.

10 According to recent studies, native Hawaiians account for 11 twenty per cent of the total population but forty per cent of 12 the prison population. Native Hawaiians average twenty-three 13 per cent of all arrests in the State, and are twice as likely to 14 be incarcerated as any other group. In 1999, it was reported
15 that more than fifty per cent of the female population and more
16 than sixty per cent of the male population, at the Hawaii Youth
17 Correctional Facility were native Hawaiian.

1 The high rates of incarceration have profound implications
2 for native Hawaiians. For example, almost sixty per cent of 3 children placed in child protective services are native
4 Hawaiian. Of those children, eight per cent to thirty-three per 5 cent have incarcerated parents. Studies suggest that adult
6 children of incarcerated mothers are two and one-half times more
7 likely to be incarcerated than adult children of incarcerated
8 fathers. Ninety-five per cent of the one hundred twenty female 9 Hawaii inmates incarcerated at a single mainland facility are 10 mothers.

11 Incarceration has many long-term effects including negative
12 impacts on health, family instability, diminished lifetime
13 wages, social stigma, and educational limitations. These 14 negative impacts result in higher rates of illness and death.

15 The purpose of this Act is to conduct a study on the 16 extent, nature, and impact of disparate treatment of native
17 Hawaiians and other ethnic groups in the State's criminal 18 justice system.

19 SECTION 2. (a) The office of Hawaiian affairs shall 20 conduct a study on the disparate treatment of native Hawaiians
21 and other ethnic groups in the State's criminal justice system.

1 (b) The following members shall jointly contribute to the 2 study:

3 (1) The administrator of the office of Hawaiian affairs or 4 the administrator's designee;

5 (2) The dean of the William S. Richardson School of Law,
6 University of Hawaii at Manoa or the dean's designee;

7 (3) The president of Alu Like, Inc. or the president's 8 designee;

9 (4) The president of the American Civil Liberties Union of 10 Hawaii or the president's designee;

11 (5) The executive director of the Justice Policy Institute 12 or the executive director's designee; and

13 (6) The president of the Queen Liliuokalani Children's 14 Center or the president's designee.

15 (c) The study shall include but not be limited to:

16 (1) Identifying the stages in the criminal justice system
17 with a disproportionate representation of native
18 Hawaiians and other ethnic groups. The stages shall 19 include the:

20 (A) Entry point, whether emergency call or arrest;

1 (B) Court processes, including court appearances,
2 prosecutorial review, plea bargains, and
3 sentencing; and

4 (C) Exit from incarceration, including parole,
5 probation, and recidivism rates;

6 (2) Assessing the decision points in the stages identified
7 to determine where disparities occur;

8 (3) Identifying the cause for the disparities and the 9 extent to which they are related to legitimate public
10 safety objectives, including sentencing policies, drug
11 laws and policies, and the availability of appropriate 12 intervention and treatment options; and

13 (4) Identifying methods of recidivism prevention and 14 facilitating offenders' successful reentry into the 15 community.

16 SECTION 3. There is appropriated out of the general
17 revenues of the State of Hawaii the sum of $15,000 or so much 18 thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year 2009-2010 and the 19 same sum or so much thereof as may be necessary for fiscal year
20 2010-2011 for the purposes of this Act, provided that no funds
21 shall be made available under this Act unless the office of

S.B. NO. 560

1 Hawaiian affairs provides a matching amount for the purpose for 2 which these sums are appropriated.

3 The sums appropriated shall be expended by the office of 4 Hawaiian affairs for the purposes of this Act.

5 SECTION 4. This Act shall take effect on July 1, 2009.
