
SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

REQUESTING ALL PROPONENTS OF LEGISLATIVE MEASURES, INCLUDING GOVERNMENTAL AGENCIES AND THE LEGISLATURE, TO ADHERE TO THE HAWAII LEGISLATIVE DRAFTING MANUAL WHEN DRAFTING OR AMENDING MEASURES FOR PURPOSES OF CONSISTENCY AND STYLE.

1 WHEREAS, in 2009, there were 1,843 bills introduced in the 2 House of Representatives and 1,680 bills introduced in the 3 Senate. Of these bills, two hundred fifty-one were passed and 4 submitted to the Governor; and

5
6 WHEREAS, in 2009, nine hundred forty-eight resolutions were 7 introduced in both the House of Representatives and the Senate, 8 and, of these, two hundred eighty-eight were adopted; and

9
10 WHEREAS, the Legislature considers this enormous volume of 11 bills and resolutions within a relatively short time period--
12 approximately four months during a regular legislative session--
13 and the resources to do so are limited. Thus, the Legislature 14 must prioritize and focus on substantive issues that benefit the 15 people of Hawai'i, such as revitalizing the economy or addressing 16 furloughs in Hawaii public schools, rather than expending these 17 limited resources on technical disagreements over differences in 18 drafting styles of the measures, such as whether the word
19 "State" should be capitalized or whether "that" or "which" is 20 appropriate in a specific sentence; and

21
22 WHEREAS, when members of the Legislature are expending
23 their time and resources on these differences in drafting styles
24 within one high-priority measure, they may not have sufficient 25 time to address other measures that could benefit the quality of 26 life for Hawai'i's people; and

27
28 WHEREAS, notwithstanding the need of the Legislature to 29 focus its attention on substantive concerns, the Legislature is 30 cognizant of the necessity of making each measure that is passed 31 or adopted consistent with and integrated into the existing

1 Hawaii Revised Statutes, and, accordingly, members of the 2 Legislature cannot simply ignore these style differences; and 3

4 WHEREAS, to alleviate the Legislature from misspending its 5 scarce resources, all proponents of measures and, specifically,
6 governmental agencies, including the Legislature, should attempt 7 to strive for consistency and integration while drafting or 8 amending the measures throughout the legislative process; and 9

10 WHEREAS, the Legislative Reference Bureau publishes the 11 "Hawaii Legislative Drafting Manual" (Drafting Manual), which is 12 currently in its ninth edition, for the very purpose of 13 conformity of drafting styles to effectuate consistency and 14 integration with the Hawaii Revised Statutes and to provide 15 guidance to those who are drafting or amending measures; and 16

17 WHEREAS, the Legislative Reference Bureau, the Director of 18 which is the Revisor of Statutes pursuant to section 23G-11, 19 Hawaii Revised Statutes, is tasked with making changes to any 20 act in order to conform the style of the act to the Hawaii
21 Revised Statutes; and 22

23 WHEREAS, these style rules, which are now incorporated into 24 the Drafting Manual, were adopted by both the House of 25 Representatives and the Senate in 1967, and, thus, the Drafting 26 Manual published by the Legislative Reference Bureau is 27 authoritative and, absent an amended edition of the Drafting 28 Manual, should be adhered to by all proponents of legislative 29 measures, including governmental agencies and the Legislature;
30 now, therefore,
31

32 BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the Twenty-fifth 33 Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2010, the 34 House of Representatives concurring, that all proponents of 35 legislative measures, including governmental agencies and the 36 Legislature, are requested to adhere to the current Drafting 37 Manual published by the Legislative Reference Bureau when 38 proposing, drafting, or amending bills or resolutions, in order
39 to assure that the measures considered are consistent in style,
40 while allowing the Legislature to devote more time and resources 41 to addressing the substantive legal and social issues within 42 these measures; and
43

1 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that certified copies of this 2 Concurrent Resolution be transmitted to the President of the 3 Senate, Speaker of the House of Representatives, the Director of 4 the Legislative Reference Bureau, the Attorney General, the 5 Chief Justice of the Hawai'i Supreme Court, the Chairperson of 6 the Board of Trustees of the Office of Hawaiian Affairs, and the 7 Mayors and Council Chairs of the respective counties.

