7 epidemiologic investigation when requested by an authorized
8 representative of the director.

9 For the purposes of this subsection, "locating information"
10 includes information contained in appointment, reservation,
11 registration, invitation, attendance, billing, payment lists, or

5 department to threaten the public health or safety. An
6 administrative investigation may involve the examination of real
7 or personal property, records, equipment, buildings, products,

18 issue an administrative investigation warrant directing a police
19 officer of the circuit to assist the department representative

8 court that would establish probable cause for the search.
9 Probable cause for the search shall be established by affidavit
10 demonstrating: (1) that there is reasonable cause for the 11 investigation of the particular premises at issue, (2) that the

Report Title:

Epidemiologic Investigations

Description:

Grants the Department of Health authority to take samples necessary for epidemiologic investigations.

JUSTIFICATION SHEET

DEPARTMENT: Health

TITLE: A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO EPIDEMIOLOGIC INVESTIGATIONS.

PURPOSE: To authorize the Department of Health to take samples necessary for an epidemiologic investigation.

MEANS: Amend section 321-29, Hawaii Revised Statutes.

JUSTIFICATION: Interruption, containment, and prevention of outbreaks of dangerous diseases depend on timely epidemiological investigations that include tracing the possible sources and tracking the spread of disease. Epidemiological investigations have been impeded by refusal of individuals to allow department investigators to gain access to implicated premises to obtain samples necessary for analysis. Collection and analysis of plant, animal, food, or environmental samples associated with an outbreak investigation can identify the source and specific type of microbiological or chemical contamination. Analytical testing results provide essential data needed to make recommendations for remediation of an existing outbreak as well as prevention of future serious outbreaks. Lack of authority to take samples of potentially contaminated materials can impede an epidemiological investigation necessary to protect the public health.

Impact on the public: Authority to take samples for laboratory analysis can protect the public health and welfare by enabling or facilitating accurate determination of disease threats which is needed to prevent and control associated disease outbreaks.

Impact on the department and other agencies:
Authority to take samples for laboratory analysis will facilitate the department's ability to investigate, control, and prevent threats to public health.

GENERAL FUND: No additional state funds would be required to implement this proposal. Programs would prioritize expenditures to meet administrative remedy obligations with existing resources.

OTHER FUNDS: None.

PPBS PROGRAM DESIGNATION: HTH-131.

OTHER AFFECTED AGENCIES: None.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Upon approval.
