
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO CHILDREN.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. Section 571-51.5, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 2 amended to read as follows:

3 "§571-51.5 [~~Modification of support~~] Child support and 4 visitation decrees [-]; modification and enforcement. (a) The 5 special court trustee may assist any parent, guardian, or 6 custodian materially affected by a court order or decree with 7 the modification of any provision of the order or decree
8 pertaining to child support payments or with the enforcement of 9 visitation rights; provided the special court trustee may assist 10 in modifying child support payments only upon finding, after 11 investigation, reasonable cause to believe that the relative 12 financial condition between the obligor and the person who 13 receives the child support payments has substantially changed.
14 For purposes of this section, [~~such~~] a substantial change has 15 occurred if:

16 (1) The obligor has involuntarily suffered a material
17 reduction in financial resources; or

1 (2) The person who receives child support payments has 2 enjoyed a material increase in financial resources.

3 (b) The special court trustee may conduct an investigation
4 for the purposes of ~~[subsection]~~:

5 (1) Subsection (a) ~~[where]~~ if a person notifies the 6 special court trustee that the relative financial 7 condition between the obligor and the person who 8 receives the child support payments has substantially 9 changed~~[-]~~; and

10 (2) Subsection (i) if a person notifies the special court
11 trustee that a parent has interfered with visitation
12 by failing to keep a scheduled visit without timely 13 notifying the other parent of cancelation or by 14 failing to reschedule a canceled visit within a 15 reasonable time.

16 (c) The special court trustee may ~~[utilize]~~ use the 17 services of public or private social agencies in conducting 18 investigations under this section and in making the written 19 findings to the court. ~~[Such]~~ The written findings shall be 20 received in evidence under the same conditions as would those of 21 the special court trustee.

1 (d) The special court trustee shall submit findings and 2 recommendations pertaining to the modification of child support
3 payments or enforcement of visitation rights in writing to the 4 court after investigation under subsection (b). The special

15 subsection (d).

16 (f) Whenever the court, in accordance with this section,
17 approves in full or in part the recommendations of the special
18 court trustee, the court, within a period of not more than ten 19 days after the hearing, shall modify the decree or order to 20 reflect the approved recommendations.

21 (g) Court costs, service fees, and the expenses of any 22 investigation conducted by the special court trustee, in the

1 discretion of the court, may be assessed wholly or partially 2 against any parent, guardian, or custodian.

3 (h) Nothing in this section shall be construed to the 4 effect that child support and visitation compliance be 5 conditioned upon each other. Each shall be treated as an 6 independent right of the child as well as of a parent.

7 (i) With regard to the enforcement of visitation rights,
8 if after investigation under subsection (b), the special court
9 trustee determines that either the custodial parent or 10 noncustodial parent has interfered with visitation by failing to 11 keep a scheduled visit without timely notifying the other parent
12 of cancelation or by failing to reschedule a canceled visit
13 within a reasonable time, the special court trustee may include 14 in the findings and recommendations under subsection (d) that 15 $100 per occurrence be assessed against the parent who 16 interfered with visitation. The court may approve the 17 recommendation in full or in part pursuant to subsection (f).
18 Any moneys assessed pursuant to this subsection shall be 19 deposited into the parent education special fund established
20 pursuant to section 607-5.6."

7 been initially waived, the court may collect the surcharge
8 subsequent to the filing with such surcharge to be assessed from 9 either party or apportioned between both parties."

11 matured, penalties that were incurred, and proceedings that were 12 begun, before its effective date.
