HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

RECOMMENDING THAT THE KAPOLEI COURT COMPLEX BE RENAMED AS "THE RONALD T.Y. MOON JUDICIAL COMPLEX".

1           WHEREAS, Ronald T.Y. Moon has devoted more than four 2 decades to serving Hawaii's judiciary, as a law clerk to United 3 States District Court Judge Martin Pence, as a Deputy 4 Prosecutor, as a respected attorney in private practice, as 5 Circuit Court Judge, and as a distinguished member of Hawaii's 6 Supreme Court; and 7

8           WHEREAS, Ronald T.Y. Moon was elevated to the position of 9 Chief Justice of the Hawaii Supreme Court in 1993 and has served
10 with distinction throughout his tenure on the State's highest 11 court; and 12

13           WHEREAS, under Chief Justice Moon's leadership, Hawaii's 14 judicial system has responded to the challenges of a rapidly
15 growing state through innovative programs such as the Judicial 16 Performance Project, the Committee on Jury Innovations for the 17 Twenty-first Century, the Appellate Mediation Program, and the 18 Access to Justice Committee; and 19

20           WHEREAS, throughout his career, Chief Justice Moon has been 21 a strong advocate for the American principle of "Justice for 22 All" by working to ensure equal access to the courts through his 23 service as chair of the Conference of Chief Justices' Access to 24 and Fairness in the Courts Committee and chair of the Americans 25 with Disabilities Act Resource Center Advisory Committee, and 26 vocal support of lawyers' pro bono service; and 27

28           WHEREAS, Chief Justice Moon has been honored by the 29 National Center for State Courts with that organization's 30 Distinguished Service Award for longstanding contributions to 31 the improvement of the justice system and support of the 32 National Center's mission of leadership, service, and education;

WHEREAS, Chief Justice Moon has been honored by the government of the Republic of Korea with the Order of Civil Merit, one of the highest awards given by that country, in recognition of his contributions to the Korean community in the United States; and

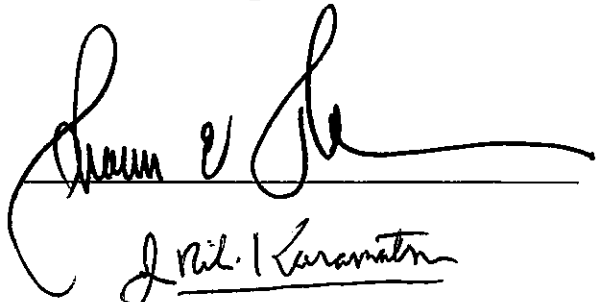

WHEREAS, Chief Justice Moon's unwavering support and tireless advocacy was instrumental in increasing access to the judicial system, especially for traditionally underserved communities on the Leeward Coast, by building the Kapolei Court Complex in West Oahu; and

WHEREAS, the Kapolei Court Complex will increase access to the judicial system by relieving overcrowding, increasing public safety within the courthouse, providing a more convenient forum for the residents of West Oahu, and providing a location for services to the community; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the Twenty-fifth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2010, the Senate concurring, that it be recommended that the Kapolei Court Complex be renamed the Ronald T.Y. Moon Judicial Complex in recognition of Chief Justice Moon's outstanding contributions to the State of Hawaii; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that certified copies of this Concurrent Resolution be transmitted to the Comptroller and the State Judiciary.
