
HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

URGING THE UNITED STATES CONGRESS TO RATIFY AND ADOPT THE UNITED NATIONS DECLARATION OF INDIGENOUS RIGHTS.

1 WHEREAS, the United Nations General Assembly adopted the 2 Declaration of Indigenous Rights on September 13, 2007, with one
3 hundred forty-three member states voting in favor, eleven 4 abstaining and four -- Australia, Canada, New Zealand, and the 5 United States -- voting against; and 6

7 WHEREAS, the Declaration emphasizes the rights of 8 indigenous peoples to maintain and strengthen their own 9 institutions, cultures, and traditions and to pursue their 10 development in keeping with their own needs and aspirations; and 11

12 WHEREAS, the Declaration prohibits discrimination against 13 indigenous peoples and promotes their full and effective
14 participation in all matters that concern them, and their right 15 to remain distinct and to pursue their own visions of economic 16 and social development; and 17

18 WHEREAS, the Declaration supports the rights of indigenous 19 peoples and, broadly, for the human rights agenda; and 20

21 WHEREAS, by ratifying the Declaration, the United states
22 will be taking a major step toward the promotion and protection 23 of human rights and fundamental freedoms for all; and 24

25 WHEREAS, the text of the Declaration is non-binding, 26 setting out individual and collective rights of indigenous 27 peoples, as well as their rights to culture, identity, language, 28 employment, health, education, and other issues; and 29

30 WHEREAS, the Declaration will also provide a basis for 31 settlement of native claims by providing a foundation for the 32 fair and equitable adjudication of native claims; and
