
HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

URGING CONGRESS TO SUPPORT FEDERAL LEGISLATION PROHIBITING HEALTH INSURERS FROM DENYING COVERAGE TO VICTIMS OF DOMESTIC VIOLENCE ON THE GROUNDS THAT IT IS A PRE-EXISTING CONDITION.

1 WHEREAS, anyone of any race, age, sexual orientation,
2 religion, or gender can be subject to domestic violence; and

3
4 WHEREAS, domestic violence can occur between couples who
5 are married, living together, or who are dating; and

6
7 WHEREAS, domestic violence affects people of all
8 socioeconomic backgrounds and education levels; and

9
10 WHEREAS, about one out of every four women in the country
11 will be physically assaulted or raped by an intimate partner at 12 some point in their lives and are more likely to be assaulted,
13 injured, raped, or killed by a male partner than by any other
14 type of assailant; and

15
16 WHEREAS, estimates of assaults on women by partners range
17 from approximately two to four million annually in the United 18 States; and

19
20 WHEREAS, the majority of women killed at work are murdered
21 by a current or former intimate partner; and

22
23 WHEREAS, it has been a common practice among health
24 insurers to deny coverage to victims of domestic abuse on the 25 grounds that domestic violence is a "pre-existing condition";
26 and

27
28 WHEREAS, it is not uncommon for victims of domestic
29 violence to not report incidents of domestic violence for fear
30 of losing their health insurance coverage; and

WHEREAS, according to the National Women's Law Center, although forty-two states have enacted laws to prohibit health insurers from classifying domestic violence as a "pre-existing condition", Idaho, Mississippi, North Carolina, North Dakota, Oklahoma, South Carolina, South Dakota, Wyoming, and the District of Columbia have not; and

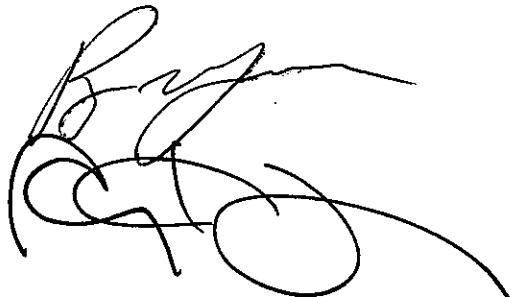

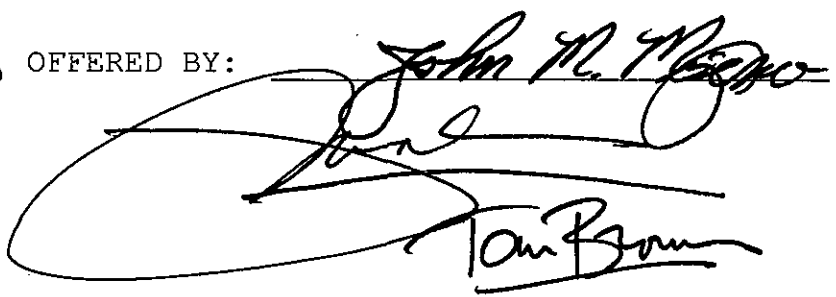

WHEREAS, a more comprehensive solution requires federal legislation to ban this unfair practice to provide victims of domestic violence with health care coverage; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the Twenty-fifth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2010, the Senate concurring, that Congress is urged to support federal legislation prohibiting health insurers from denying coverage to victims of domestic violence by classifying domestic violence as a pre-existing condition; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that certified copies of this Concurrent Resolution be transmitted to the President of the United States, the Majority Leader of the United States Senate, the Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, and the members of Hawaii's congressional delegation.
