
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO THE OFFICE OF HAWAIIAN AFFAIRS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. Section 13D-4, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 2 amended to read as follows:

3 "~~[+] §13D-4 [+] Election of board members. [Members] (a)~~
4 Beginning January 1, 2014, members of the board of trustees
5 shall be [elected at a special election held in conjunction with 6 the general election] nominated at a primary election and 7 elected at the general election in every even-numbered year.

8 Except as otherwise provided by this chapter, members shall be 9 nominated and elected in the manner prescribed by this title.

10 ~~[Nomination papers.] (b)~~ The chief election officer shall 11 prepare the nomination papers in such a manner that a candidate 12 desiring to file for election to the board shall be able to 13 specify whether the candidate is seeking a seat requiring 14 residency on a particular island or a seat without ~~[such]~~ a 15 residency requirement.

16 ~~[Ballot.] (c)~~ The board of trustees ballot shall be 17 prepared in such a manner that every voter qualified and 18 registered under section 13D-3 shall be afforded the opportunity

1 to vote for each and every candidate seeking election to the 2 board. The ballot shall contain the names of all board 3 candidates arranged alphabetically; provided that the names of 4 candidates seeking seats requiring residency on a particular
5 island shall also be grouped by island of residency. Each 6 eligible voter shall be entitled to receive the board of 7 trustees ballot and to vote for the number of seats available.

8 (d) The two candidates receiving the highest number of 9 votes for each available seat shall be nominated at the primary 10 election for the general election; provided that if any 11 candidate receives more than fifty per cent of the total votes
12 cast for the available seat at the primary election, the chief 13 election officer shall declare that candidate to be duly and 14 legally elected. If, after the close of filing of nomination
15 papers, there are only two qualified candidates for any seat
16 requiring residency on a particular island, the chief election
17 officer shall declare those two candidates duly nominated for 18 the general election. The names of those two candidates shall 19 not appear on the primary election ballot.

20 (e) Each voter registered to vote in the general election
21 shall be entitled to receive the office of Hawaiian affairs

1 ballot and to vote for the number of seats available on the 2 respective islands.

3 (f) If there is only one qualified candidate for any seat
4 requiring residency on a particular island, after the close of 5 filing of nomination papers, the chief election officer shall 6 declare the candidate to be duly and legally elected. If the 7 number of qualified candidates for seats without a residency 8 requirement is equal to or less than the number of the seats to 9 be filled, after the close of filing of nomination papers, the 10 chief election officer shall declare the candidates to be duly 11 and legally elected.

12 (g) For any at-large seat without a residency requirement,
13 the qualified candidates receiving the highest number of total
14 votes at the primary election shall be declared by the chief
15 election officer duly nominated for the general election;
16 provided that the general election shall include no more than 17 twice the number of qualified candidates as seats available."

18 SECTION 2. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed
19 and stricken. New statutory material is underscored.

20 SECTION 3. This Act shall take effect July 1, 2050.
