TESTIMONY ON: HB 2798 - Increases the Terms of Members of the Commission on Fatherhood from Two to Four Years

FOR: House Committee on Human Services

DATE: Monday, February 1, 2010; 8:30 a.m.
Committee Hearing

LOCATION: Conference Room 329, State Capitol

SUBMITTED BY: Greg Farstrup, Chair, on behalf of the State Commission on Fatherhood

Chair John Mizuno, Vice Chair Tom Brower, and Members of the Human Services Committee, thank you for introducing and hearing HB 2798.

The State Commission on Fatherhood strongly supports HB 2798, which increases the terms of members of the State Commission on Fatherhood from two (2) to four (4) years.

Participation in the monthly State Commission on Fatherhood meetings by voting members of the Fatherhood Commission has been severely inhibited by the present two (2) year terms as well as by difficulties with making timely voting-member replacement appointments when vacancies occur on the Commission. This bill will help facilitate the functioning of the State Commission on Fatherhood as well as provide for institutional knowledge and continuity.

The State Commission on Fatherhood members urge you to pass HB 2798.
