
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO PUBLIC EMPLOYEES.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that identity theft is an 2 increasingly frequent crime with crippling effects on the 3 finances and credit of individuals and businesses. Identity
4 theft occurs when personal information, such as names, social 5 security numbers, credit card numbers, and other information are 6 stolen or obtained and used to commit fraud or other crimes.
7 The department of the attorney general reported over 1,302 cases
8 or incidents of identity theft in the State in 2008. The 9 Honolulu Police Department alone reported that its financial 10 fraud unit received over five hundred new cases of identity
11 theft in 2009. Due to the increased use of the Internet for 12 purchasing goods and services, completing bank and other
13 financial transactions, social communication, and business
14 transactions, people have become increasingly wary of the risk
15 of identity theft.

16 In 2009, a local online news service made several requests
17 for information on state employees' salaries, which were later 18 published on the online news website. In many instances, the

1 employee's name and specific salary were listed, causing concern
2 that the availability of the information could place employees
3 at greater risk of identity theft and raising other privacy
4 issues.

5 While the legislature acknowledges the importance of open
6 government and the disclosure of certain types of information
7 for public inspection, it also recognized the need to balance 8 open government with the right to privacy when it enacted the 9 Uniform Information Practices Act in 1988. In light of the 10 increasing risk of identity theft in recent years, the 11 legislature finds that the Uniform Information Practices Act 12 should be modified to provide greater privacy protections for 13 state and county employees while preserving the intent of the 14 law to promote the public's access to certain types of 15 information.

16 The purpose of this Act is to amend the name and 17 compensation disclosure requirement for state and county
18 employees.

19 SECTION 2. Section 92F-12, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 20 amended by amending subsection (a) to read as follows:

16 involved in an undercover capacity in a law

19 of making information available to the general public;
