

JAN 21 2011

A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO AGING.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that in 1980, older
2 adults comprised twelve per cent of the State's total
3 population. In 2000, the population nearly doubled, with over 4 two hundred and seven thousand older adults comprising seventeen
5 per cent of Hawaii's total population. This growth trend is 6 expected to continue. According to a May 2006 report prepared
7 by the executive office on aging, Profile of Hawaii's Older
8 Adults and Their Caregivers, by the year 2020, persons of age
9 sixty and older will constitute nearly one-third, or thirty per 10 cent, of Hawaii's adult population. Moreover, the number of 11 persons who are eighty-five years of age and older is projected 12 to continue to increase dramatically, from 5,561 in 1980 to 13 33,800 in 2020.

14 The legislature further finds that the array of publicly-15 funded programs and services that serve the older population in 16 the areas of health care, disability services, insurance, long-17 term care, caregiver support, medicaid, medicare, and 18 institutional and community-based adult care, for example, are

1 scattered among state departments. These programs and services
2 help to meet the multi-faceted needs of older adults and are 3 provided by various county, state, federal, private, and not-
4 for-profit entities but can be challenging for care recipients, 5 caregivers, and families to navigate. As a central agency, the 6 executive office on aging currently coordinates some of the 7 programs and services available to Hawaii's older population;
8 however, the scope and magnitude of overlapping issues facing
9 the elderly may necessitate department-level attention. A 10 departmental agency could better focus resources and personnel 11 by directly addressing with top-level policy makers the multi-12 faceted needs of Hawaii's older population.

13 The purpose of this Act is to establish a department of 14 aging and consolidate publicly-funded programs and services that 15 would appropriately fall within the jurisdiction of a new 16 department of aging.

17 SECTION 2. The Hawaii Revised Statutes is amended by 18 adding a new chapter to be appropriately designated and to read
19 as follows:
