SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

REQUESTING THE GOVERNOR TO PROCLAIM APRIL 30, 2011, AS "VIETNAM VETERANS APPRECIATION DAY".

1           WHEREAS, on January 15, 1973, then-President Richard M.
2 Nixon announced that the United States would suspend offensive
3 action against North Vietnam; and
4

5           WHEREAS, on January 27, 1973, direct United States
6 involvement in the Vietnam War was officially ended by the 7 signing of the Paris Peace Accords, entitled "Ending the War and 8 Restoring Peace in Vietnam"; and 9

10           WHEREAS, a cease-fire was declared across North and South
11 Vietnam and United States prisoners of war were released; and 12

13           WHEREAS, on March 30, 1973, all United States military 14 withdrew from Vietnam under the terms of the treaty; and 15

16           WHEREAS, by April 30, 1973, all Americans, including
17 military and civilians, had departed from South Vietnam;
18

19           WHEREAS, because of the civil unrest of that period in 20 history, many Vietnam veterans came home to a politically
21 divided country and did not receive the supportive, appreciative
22 homecoming that is normally given to our servicemen and 23 servicewomen who return home from overseas combat; and 24

25           WHEREAS, the courage and dedication of our troops in the 26 Vietnam War was no less than their fellow servicemen and 27 servicewomen overseas in other conflicts, and is equally
28 deserving of our honor, gratitude, and support; and 29

30           WHEREAS, in recognition of the sacrifice and hardship of 31 our Vietnam veterans, the United States Senate on March 8, 2011,
32 declared April 30, 2011, as "Vietnam Veterans Appreciation Day"

1 to encourage Americans to give them a long overdue, warm welcome
2 home; now, therefore,
3

4 BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the Twenty-Sixth
5 Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2011, the 6 House of Representatives concurring, that the Governor is 7 requested to proclaim April 30, 2011, as "Vietnam Veterans
8 Appreciation Day"; and 9
