SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

REQUESTING THE CONVENING OF A TASK FORCE TO DETERMINE HOW TO EXPAND SCHOOL GARDENS PROGRAMS STATEWIDE.

1 WHEREAS, according to the National Survey of Children's 2 Health, twenty-eight percent of school-aged children in Hawaii
3 are either overweight or obese, and one in every three children
4 born in the United States in 2000 will develop diabetes; and

5
6 WHEREAS, the 2003 Food Security Task Force report published
7 by the State Office of Planning also noted that over nineteen
8 percent of Hawaii residents live in food insecure households, 9 and most of those households contain school-aged children; and

10
11 WHEREAS, many children in Hawaii have limited exposure to 12 the wide range of healthy, local foods that are available and 13 frequently have no idea where food comes from or how it is 14 prepared, leaving them susceptible to the ubiquitous marketing 15 and easy availability of "junk" food; and

16
17 WHEREAS, the addition of locally-produced fruits and 18 vegetables in school meals would bring high quality, local 19 produce to Hawaii's school children; and

20
21 WHEREAS, farm to school programs, such as planting and 22 tending school gardens, have proven successful in supplying high 23 quality food, as well as providing students with knowledge that 24 enhances their educational experience and cultivates long-term
25 healthy habits; and

26
27 WHEREAS, several successful alternative farm to school
28 programs exist in Hawaii through public-private partnerships and 29 strong support from local school administrators, food service
30 managers, teachers, parents, and students; and

31
32 WHEREAS, these programs also rely upon external support
33 from non-profit organizations, such as Kokua Hawai'i Foundation's

1 'AINA In Schools (Actively Integrating Nutrition and Agriculture
2 in Schools), MA'O Organic Farms, The Kohala Center through its 3 Hawai'i School Garden Hui, and the Ulupono Initiative; now, 4 therefore,
5
