
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO THE HAWAII PENAL CODE.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that, under Act 193,
2 Session Laws of Hawaii 2008, the office of offender management
3 of the department of public safety has been recalculating the 4 expiration date of all Hawaii inmates serving multiple terms of 5 imprisonment. The recalculation has drastically increased the 6 cost of incarceration because, in many cases, the recalculation
7 has increased extended expiration dates by several years,
8 without accounting for the rehabilitation of the individual.

9 This action has and will cost the State's taxpayers
10 hundreds of thousands of dollars. It has also increased costs
11 for the office of the public defender, which handles the claims
12 of incarcerated individuals on a case-by-case basis.

13 The purpose of this Act is to allow for retroactive
14 application of the requirement that multiple terms of 15 imprisonment run concurrently unless otherwise directed by law
16 or court order.

17 SECTION 2. Act 193, Session Laws of Hawaii 2008, is 18 amended by amending section 3 to read as follows:

Report Title:

Hawaii Penal Code; Concurrent Imprisonment Terms

Description:

Authorizes retroactive application of the requirement that multiple terms of imprisonment run concurrently unless directed to run consecutively by law or court order.
