
HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

RECOGNIZING OCTOBER AS WOMEN'S HEALTH MONTH.

1 WHEREAS, women face a multitude of health risks that affect 2 not only their own well-being, but the well-being of their 3 children; and
4

5 WHEREAS, minority women are disproportionately affected by 6 health conditions, including tobacco-related cancers, heart
7 disease, depression, and reproductive health risks; and 8

9 WHEREAS, the additional responsibilities women have 10 undertaken in the last 60 years, both inside and outside the 11 home, have led to increased health risks such as heart disease
12 and hypertension; and 13

14 WHEREAS, state government can increase its support for 15 women's health and can make a significant difference in 16 improving the status of women's health; and 17

18 WHEREAS, Women's Health Month is a time dedicated to 19 raising public consciousness about health care and issues unique 20 to women, and improving the health and well-being of women in 21 Hawaii; and

23 WHEREAS, raising awareness about the role women can play in 24 disease prevention and treatment, and educating others will 25 result in better health in their families and in Hawaii overall; 26 and
27

28 WHEREAS, recognition of health issues unique to women and 29 differences in health and health care experiences across 30 cultures and age groups among women is critical to the

1 development of strategies for improving the health care and 2 quality of life for women and girls; and

3 WHEREAS, the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention 4 reports that the incidence of cervical cancer and number of 5 deaths from cervical cancer have significantly decreased in the 6 last 40 years primarily as a result of early detection, and 7 early detection can only occur when women are aware of the 8 risks; and

9
10 WHEREAS, the purpose of Women's Health Month is to maximize 11 public awareness of women's health issues, empower women to be 12 their own health advocates, reduce health care disparities, and 13 promote the physical and emotional well-being of women in 14 Hawaii; and

15
16 WHEREAS, Women's Health Month activities need not be costly 17 or complicated to have a positive and tangible effect on the 18 lives of women; and

19
20 WHEREAS, the Hawaii State Commission on the Status of Women
21 celebrated its first annual Women and Family Wellness Day in 22 Hilo on September 13, 2008; and

23
24 WHEREAS, events such as these offer an opportunity for 25 local community partners to work collaboratively for the benefit 26 of all of Hawaii's women; now, therefore,

27
28 BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the 29 Twenty-sixth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session
30 of 2011, the Senate concurring, that this body recognizes 31 October as Women's Health Month; and

32
33 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that organizations that participate 34 in Women's Health Month shall incorporate events designed to 35 raise awareness of, and educate the public about women's health
36 issues; and that the month of events will include education
37 workshops, health fairs, lectures, fitness activities, and other 38 special events; and

39
40 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that this body applauds all women
41 who take an active role in carrying out the goals of educating 42 others about healthier lifestyles, prevention, and treatment;
43 and

1 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that certified copies of this
 2 Concurrent Resolution be transmitted to the Governor, Director
 3 of Health, Director of Human Services, and Executive Director of 4 the Hawaii State Commission on the Status of Women.
