A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO INDIVIDUAL DEVELOPMENT ACCOUNTS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that economic stability
2 does not arise solely from income. Financial assets, including 3 cash savings, stocks, bonds, and home and business equity are 4 all critical components of economic security. The accumulation
5 of financial assets can offer individuals hope for the future,
6 stimulate growth in all sectors, and enhance the welfare of 7 families and children. For example, a home is often a family's 8 most valuable asset and forms a large component of household net
9 worth for many Americans.

10 The legislature further finds that saving for a down 11 payment on a home is a formidable prospect for too many low- and 12 moderate-income earners in Hawaii. While developing affordable 13 housing properties is necessary, it is equally important to 14 invest in additional strategies that can expand a family's 15 ability to purchase a home. Individual development accounts are 16 special savings accounts that match the deposits of low- and 17 moderate-income account holders to save towards certain 18 qualified financial goals. Individual development accounts have

1 provided proven assistance to families who are saving to 2 purchase a home, pay higher education expenses, and fulfill
3 other asset-building goals.

4 The purpose of this Act is to appropriate funds for 5 individual development account programs to support asset-
6 building among low- and moderate-income families.

7 SECTION 2. Section 257-1, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 8 amended as follows:
