Representative Fontaine rose to speak in opposition to the measure, stating:

"Yes, Mr. Speaker. I rise in opposition to this measure, Stand. Com. Rep. No. 1441. What this basically will do is it will put back safety inspections on new vehicles from two years, out to three years. And we had very compelling testimony during the Committee about why this is a bad idea. Parts do wear out on cars. Tires wear out, Windshield wipers wear out. Headlights become misadjusted. One testifier said that about half of the vehicles that they inspected, there was some issue with the car that was three years and younger.

"So newer cars have issues and have things that wear out. Only about 4 of the 34 inspection items that are on the safety inspection sheet are actually covered under warranty, so the argument was that people take their car in for servicing and have their oil changed and all those problems can be identified. But actually that is not the case. There are some specific servicing that's done and unless the driver instructs the repair shop, 'Hey fix my headlight,' they won't even bother with it. They'll do the oil change and send you on your way.

"So I think we have to take a step back. I understand we're trying to perhaps save money with consumers and not having to have it done so quickly. But I think that there's definitely safety issues regarding that. Thank you."

S.B. No. 219, SD 1, HD 1:

Representative M. Lee rose in support of the measure and asked that her written remarks be inserted in the Journal, and the Chair "so ordered."

Representative M. Lee's written remarks are as follows:

"Mr. Speaker, I am almost certain that the saying, "Women are from Venus, Men are from Mars," applies to this issue. Having never experienced childbirth themselves, the Chairs' initial reluctance to hear this measure is perhaps understandable. I am happy and grateful they have finally seen the light.

"Women represent the fastest growing population in U.S. prisons. According to the Bureau of Justice Statistics, the number of women prisoners tripled between 1995 and 2008. As the number of incarcerated women rises, so does the number of pregnant women in prison.

"In Hawaii, as elsewhere, the number of women in prison is rising. Even so, Hawaii does not have anti-shackling laws on the books. Shackling can mean a combination of handcuffs, leg irons, belly chains, and Posey belts. While there are no statistics measuring the frequency with which shackles or restraints have been used on women prisoners in Hawaii, the use of such restraints on incarcerated pregnant women is common in the United States. These restraints may be used on pregnant women during transportation, but also during labor, delivery, and recovery.

"Shackling is an outdated, humiliating, and dangerous practice, which may severely impede a pregnant woman's health and the health of her child. Shackling may cause lack of oxygen to the fetus and resultant fetal distress, even fetal death.

"On March 23, 2010, Washington State became the seventh state in the Union to halt the unnecessary and inhumane practice of shackling.

"The American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, The American Medical Association, The Federal Bureau of Prisons, The National Bureau of Justice, and the United Nations Committee on Human Rights all oppose the shackling of pregnant women prisoners.

"In a letter written in support of federal legislation to prohibit the practice of shackling incarcerated pregnant women, Ralph Hale MD of the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists cited testimony being given on this issue in the California Legislature. Dr. Hale notes: "Physical restraints have interfered with the ability of physicians to safely practice medicine by reducing their ability to assess and evaluate the physical condition of the fetus and the mother. Similarly, they have made the process of labor and delivery more difficult than it needs to be, putting the health of mothers and unborn children at risk."

"Dr. Hale goes on to say that the shackling of incarcerated women in labor may not only compromise the health of the mother, but is also demeaning and unnecessary. Most women in correctional facilities are there for non-violent crimes.

"The safety of correctional personnel is paramount, and adequate correctional staff must be present to attend and monitor women in labor, both during and after birth, during transport to the hospital, and during recovery and hospital stay.

"Incarcerated women in labor constitute a particularly vulnerable population. PREVENTION of the practice of shackling is an important step towards humanitarian care and social justice.

"I don't ever want to hear the phrase again: Is it a problem? Let's make sure that the inhumane treatment of pregnant women prisoners is never a problem in the beautiful State of Hawaii. I urge the Members' support."

The motion was put to vote by the Chair and carried, and S.B. No. 219, SD 1, HD 1, entitled: "A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO CORRECTIONS," passed Third Reading by a vote of 50 ayes, with Representative Takumi being excused.

At 1:04 o'clock p.m., the Chair noted that the following bills passed Third Reading:

S.B. No. 1417, SD 1, HD 1
S.B. No. 219, SD 1, HD 1

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Representative Thielen: "Thank you, Mr. Vice Speaker. It's my privilege to announce that next Friday will be our annual Hemp Aloha Friday, or Natural Shirt Friday for my colleague from Kaimuki. We've done this now for probably about 15 years or so. We would do it closer to Earth Day, but that Friday is a holiday so we won't be here. So for those Neighbor Islanders, bring your hemp shirts back to the Capitol to wear them next Friday, or at least a natural fiber shirt. Thank you."

Representative Herkes: "Thank you, Mr. Speaker. I just want to remind the Members of the fundraiser breakfast next Wednesday. This is to benefit all of our constituents. We want to make sure that the Red Cross here in Hawaii has enough money to take care of all natural disasters in Hawaii.

"And I will tell you that we're flying in three people from Kona that went through the tsunami so they can tell us some very, very interesting stories. I got a very nice call from a gentleman in Pahala today who's sending us a check for $1,500.

"This is strictly nonpolitical. Everybody has to pay to get in, including me. And I hope to see you all there. Thank you."

Representative M. Lee, for the Committee on Finance, requested a waiver of the 48-hour advanced notice requirement for the purpose of hearing S.B. No. 23, Relating to Native Hawaiians, on Friday, April 8, today, at 2:00 p.m. in Conference Room 308, and the Chair "so ordered."
