
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO AGRICULTURE.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature supports the department of 2 agriculture's goal to integrate programs in order to develop
3 Hawaii's agriculture and food security. Hawaii's agriculture
4 has transformed from sugar and pineapple to diversified 5 agriculture and now faces such complexities as diversified 6 export markets, increased pest pressure, global competitiveness,
7 sustainability, food safety, food security, and self-
8 sufficiency. The legislature recognizes that addressing these 9 issues needs to be a coordinated effort by the agricultural, 10 transportation, and research organizations with other federal 11 and state agencies working in collaboration with private sector
12 businesses.

13 Therefore, the purpose of this Act is to establish the 14 agricultural development and food security program to encompass 15 all aspects of agriculture from farm to market. The farm to 16 market concept, although linear, includes interrelationships
17 between private and public sectors to develop and improve

1 agriculture in the State. The goals of the proposed concept are 2 to:

- 3 (1) Position the agricultural industry to be sustainable 4 and to achieve critical mass;
- 5 (2) Increase availability of locally grown and produced
6 commodities in the market place;
- 7 (3) Expand agricultural exports to domestic and foreign 8 countries, and re-establish Hawaii as a global leader
9 in agriculture and agriculture technologies;
- 10 (4) Develop sustainable practices that ensure self-11 sufficiency in crop production; and
- 12 (5) Protect Hawaii's agriculture, environment, and natural 13 resources.

14 The program will provide an overall direction overseen by 15 the department of agriculture to develop agriculture in areas
16 including but not limited to: farm inputs, agricultural 17 infrastructure, labor, biosecurity, food safety, sustainability, 18 market development, and research and development. The 19 department of agriculture is the government agency best 20 positioned, however not necessarily adequately resourced, to 21 oversee the development of agriculture, with active
22 participation from the agricultural industry, transportation

1 industry, the University of Hawaii-College of Tropical
2 Agriculture and Human Resources, public and private research
3 entities, and other federal and state agencies.

4 The concept of farm-to-market impacts areas that are not 5 solely under the department of agriculture's purview, but 6 critical to the development of agriculture. These include, but 7 are not limited to: agricultural lands, water treatment, pest
8 management programs, food safety, distribution and biosecurity
9 systems, industry and market development, and policy issues.

10 This Act authorizes the department of agriculture to 11 develop, coordinate, fund, and integrate new and existing 12 programs, facilities, and projects in order to promote the 13 development of agriculture and food security within the State.

14 SECTION 2. Chapter 141, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 15 amended by adding two new sections to be appropriately
16 designated and to read as follows:

DEPARTMENT: Agriculture

TITLE: A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO AGRICULTURE.

PURPOSE: To create the agricultural development and food security program to grow the farm to market concept and increase interrelationships between private and public sectors to develop and improve agriculture in the State.

MEANS: Add two new sections to chapter 141 and amend sections 141-2 and 141-10(c), Hawaii Revised Statutes.

JUSTIFICATION: Hawaii's agriculture is facing a growing number of challenges including: increased pest pressure, global competitiveness, sustainability, food safety, food security, and self-sufficiency. Recognizing these challenges, the Governor has made food and agriculture a priority in his "A New Day in Hawaii" plan with the aim of creating "an agriculture renaissance in Hawaii". The department is proposing to create the agricultural development and food security program to develop, coordinate, develop funding, and integrate new and existing programs, facilities, and projects in order to promote the development of agriculture and food security within the State through the holistic vision of farm to market.

The purpose of the agricultural development and food security program is outlined in the following goals:

- Position the agricultural industry to be sustainable and above critical mass
- Increase locally grown and produced commodities in the market place
- Expand agricultural exports to domestic and foreign countries, and re-establish

Hawaii as a global leader in agriculture and agriculture technologies

- Develop sustainability and self-sufficiency in crops of interest
- Protect Hawaii's agriculture, environment, and natural resources

Impact on the public: Would increase the viability of agriculture as an industry in Hawaii providing jobs in the industry as well as in the processing of value added products and services in this down economy. Would increase access to fresh locally grown products and decrease the dependency on imported goods whose price is largely dependent on the rising cost of oil.

Impact on the department and other agencies: Would provide a focal point within the Department of Agriculture to more effectively carry out the Governor's New Day Initiative.

GENERAL FUND: None.

OTHER FUNDS: None.

PPBS PROGRAM DESIGNATION: AGR 192.

OTHER AFFECTED AGENCIES: None.

EFFECTIVE DATE: July 1, 2012.
