A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO PAROLE.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1           SECTION 1. Chapter 353, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
2 amended by adding a new section to part II to be appropriately
3 designated and to read as follows:

4           "§353- Continuum of administrative sanctions. (a) This
5 section applies to any committed person who:

6           (1) Has been paroled after confinement in any state
7           correctional facility in execution of any sentence
8           imposed upon the committed person; and

9           (2) Is subject to suspension and revocation of parole for 10           violation of the terms and conditions of parole.

11           (b) In lieu of revocation of parole, the Hawaii paroling
12 authority may utilize a continuum of administrative sanctions
13 for violations of terms and conditions of parole. The purpose
14 of a continuum of administrative sanctions is to encourage the 15 Hawaii paroling authority to work with offenders in the 16 community rather than revoking parole for violations of terms
17 and conditions of parole.

1 In cases of a violation of a term or condition of parole,
2 the Hawaii paroling authority may impose one or more of the 3 sanctions provided in this subsection. The continuum of 4 administrative sanctions may include adjustments to the level of 5 supervision, including but not limited to:

6 (1) Modifications or additions to the terms and conditions
7 of parole; and

8 (2) Imposition of any other appropriate and available
9 sanctions, including:

10 (A) Reimprisonment as provided in subsection (c);

11 (B) House arrest or home detention;

12 (C) Electronic surveillance or monitoring;

13 (D) Substance abuse treatment;

14 (E) Sex offender treatment;

15 (F) Anger management counseling; and

16 (G) Domestic abuse counseling.

17 The Hawaii paroling authority may require the parolee who
18 receives counseling or treatment services under this subsection
19 to contribute to the cost of the counseling or treatment
20 services.

21 (c) As part of the continuum of administrative sanctions,
22 if the Hawaii paroling authority deems it appropriate to return

1 the parolee to custody for a violation of a term or condition of
2 parole, the parolee shall be returned to custody for a time
3 period to be determined by the Hawaii paroling authority but not
4 to exceed two years before being eligible for parole
5 consideration in the case of a technical violation.

6 (d) This section shall not apply if the parolee has:

7 (1) A pending criminal matter; or

8 (2) A prior parole revocation."

9 SECTION 2. Section 353-66, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 10 amended by amending subsections (d) and (e) to read as follows:

11 "(d) [~~The~~] Except as provided in section 353- , the 12 paroling authority may at any time order the arrest and 13 temporary return to custody of any paroled prisoner, as provided
14 in section 353-65, for the purpose of ascertaining whether or 15 not there is sufficient cause to warrant the paroled prisoner's
16 reimprisonment or the revoking of the paroled prisoner's parole
17 or other action provided for by this part.

18 (e) [~~Any~~] Except as provided in section 353- , any 19 paroled prisoner retaken and reimprisoned as provided in this
20 chapter shall be confined according to the paroled prisoner's
21 sentence for that portion of the paroled prisoner's term
22 remaining unserved at time of parole, but successive paroles

1 may, in the discretion of the paroling authority, be granted to
2 the prisoner during the life and in respect of the sentence."

3 SECTION 3. This Act does not affect rights and duties that 4 matured, penalties that were incurred, and proceedings that were 5 begun before its effective date.

6 SECTION 4. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed
7 and stricken. New statutory material is underscored.

8 SECTION 5. This Act shall take effect on January 1, 2025.
