Aloha Chair Baker, Vice-Chair Taniguchi, and Members of the Committee:

I am humbled to have been given an opportunity to serve on a board that strives for sportsmanlike manner with ethical business conduct. While I have no vested interest nor a conflict of interest by serving on this Board, I believe I am capable of providing input from an out-of-the-box perspective.

The Board is responsible to uphold fair play and honesty in the sport. While entertainment is a byproduct, the role of the board is to ensure the health and safety for all players, financial obligations are met by promoters, and that licensees are qualified to participate and enforce rules surrounding contests.

I intend to work cooperatively with the Executive Director and fellow board members for the betterment of the sport. My personal attributes and education give me skills to succeed and I ask for your support of my appointment to the Hawaii Boxing Commission.

Mahalo,
