Comments:

The Department of the Prosecuting Attorney, County of Maui, supports the passage of SB 2065. The bill proposes to make appropriations to the Honolulu Department of the Prosecuting Attorney for the funding of programs that are required by the State. This bill will help to ensure that State shares in the costs of these madates in accordance with Article VIII, Section 5 of the Constitution of the State of Hawaii.

Thank you very much for the opportunity to provide this testimony.
