RE: TESTIMONY IN SUPPORT OF SB2576 SD1 - RELATING TO PROSTITUTION

Dear Committee on Human Services:

I am a parent, retired military member and citizen with a strong belief that second chances are often the best chances. Sometimes a second chance is truly another person's first real chance when they are victims of sex-trafficking. This committee is in a position to give victims a second chance, a true new lease on a life that was once held by a nefarious other.

This bill allows survivors who have been intimidated, forced, or defrauded into prostitution to file motions to petition the court to vacate convictions of prostitution offenses suffered while under the control of their trafficking pimps. Help give these victims a second chance and pass this bill.

Once rehabilitated, victims of sex-trafficking have significant hurdles to overcome when they reenter the work force or return to school. Shame, discrimination, harassment are just a few of the difficulties facing those who just need an opportunity to recover from a very dark past. Instead they currently must expose the worst, most degrading time in their lives each time they go for a job. How many of these rehabilitated victims will be able to use the tools taught through state and charitable groups when they cannot even get the job at which they could succeed? The victimization continues for these survivors in a way uncommon to other survivors. They are criminals "on paper" while they are revictimized in reality.

As a retired Airman, I've known military members with criminal records who started their military careers as a second chance to change their lives. Many were later deemed heroes. Many have guided others to success on their second chance. All served their country. Why shouldn't sex-trafficking victims who have been arrested for prostitution have the same opportunity? What if sex-trafficking victims wanted to serve in the military where they could continue to grown in an environment of loyalty, camaraderie, and fairness? Due to the nature of an offense such as prostitution, they would more than likely not be allowed to enlist or obtain a security clearance. What kind of job can these victims expect with such a record that was not of their own doing, but the doing of a pimp/trafficker? Are they doomed to work entry-level jobs and forego schooling because, "What's the point?" Are they doomed as victims to stay at a social/financial level only slightly above that from which they were rescued? This committee can help change that.

I believe, like our own children to whom we implore to do well in school and stay out of trouble so they can have a good future, we act of these victim's behalf. Let's give them another chance to make a good future for themselves. You can help ensure they have an opportunity to get on a path that leads far away from a life not of their choosing toward a good life of vast potential, filled with hope.

Thank you for taking the time to listen to my testimony.

Sincerely,

Gina M. Snowden
