
HOUSE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

EXPRESSING SUPPORT FOR THE ENHANCED TRADE AND INVESTMENT
OPPORTUNITIES AMONG MEMBER COUNTRIES OF THE TRANS-PACIFIC PARTNERSHIP AND ENCOURAGING SUPPORT FOR FINALIZATION OF THE PARTNERSHIP.

1 WHEREAS, the Trans-Pacific Partnership is a proposed free
2 trade agreement among the United States and various countries
3 having the purpose of stimulating the economies of member 4 nations; and

5
6 WHEREAS, according to the "The Trans-Pacific Partnership
7 Negotiations and Issues for Congress", a Congressional Research
8 Service Report dated January 24, 2013:

9
10 "The Trans-Pacific Partnership (TPP) is a proposed
11 regional free trade agreement (FTA) being negotiated
12 among the United States, Australia, Brunei, Canada,
13 Chile, Malaysia, Mexico, New Zealand, Peru, Singapore,
14 and Vietnam. U.S. negotiators and others describe and 15 envision the TPP as a "comprehensive and high-16 standard" FTA, presumably because they hope it will 17 liberalize trade in nearly all goods and services and 18 include commitments beyond those currently established
19 in the World Trade Organization (WTO). The broad 20 outline of an agreement was announced on the sidelines
21 of the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation (APEC)
22 ministerial in November 2011 in Honolulu, HI. If 23 concluded as envisioned, the TPP potentially could 24 eliminate tariff and non-tariff barriers to trade and 25 investment among the parties and could serve as a
26 template for a future trade pact among APEC members
27 and potentially other countries. Congress has a direct 28 interest in the negotiations, both through influencing
29 U.S. negotiating positions with the executive branch,
30 and by passing legislation to implement any resulting 31 agreement. . . .

1
2 The 11 countries that make up the TPP negotiating
3 partners include advanced industrialized, middle
4 income, and developing economies. While new market
5 access opportunities exist among the participants with 6 whom the United States presently does not have FTAs,
7 the greater value of the agreement to the United 8 States may be setting a trade policy template covering
9 issues it deems important and which can be adopted
10 throughout the Asia-Pacific region, and possibly 11 beyond."

12
13 WHEREAS, Hawai'i is located in the middle of the Pacific
14 Ocean between the continents of Asia, Australia, North and South
15 America, whose countries bordering the Pacific are part of the 16 Pacific Rim nations; and

17
18 WHEREAS, the economy, environment, and social fabric of 19 Hawai'i is impacted by the four continents, the Pacific Rim
20 nations, and the many island nations of the Pacific; and

21
22 WHEREAS, Hawai'i successfully hosted the Asia-Pacific
23 Economic Cooperation (APEC) Leaders' Meeting held in Honolulu,
24 Hawai'i, in November 2011, demonstrating that Hawai'i is a
25 capable partner in major international engagements; and

26
27 WHEREAS, the Trans-Pacific Partnership agreement will 28 create jobs and promote job retention in the United States and 29 consequently in Hawai'i by increasing exports in the Pacific Rim
30 region that represents more than forty percent of global trade;
31 now, therefore,

32
33 BE IT RESOLVED by the House of Representatives of the 34 Twenty-seventh Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular 35 Session of 2013, the Senate concurring, that this body supports
36 the enhanced trade and investment opportunities among member
37 countries of the Trans-Pacific Partnership and encourages
38 Hawai'i's Congressional delegation and other leaders to support
39 negotiations to finalize the Partnership; and

40
41 BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that certified copies of this 42 Concurrent Resolution be transmitted to President of the United 43 States, President Pro Tempore of the United States Senate,

H.C.R. NO. 100

1 Speaker of the United States House of Representatives, United 2 States Secretary of State, United States Secretary of Commerce,
3 Hawai'i's Congressional delegation, and the Governor.
