

1 as mandated by this part. The obligation to be subject to
2 electronic monitoring shall run concurrently with the obligation
3 to provide sex offender registration.

4 (b) The attorney general shall use a system of active
5 electronic monitoring that identifies the location of a
6 monitored offender and that can produce, upon request, reports
7 or records of the offender's presence near or within a crime
8 scene or prohibited area or the offender's departure from 9 specified geographic limitations, produces an audible alarm upon 10 damage of a degree that would render location identification 11 functions inoperative, and may contract with a private vendor to 12 meet the mandate of this part.

13 §846E-B Periodic maintenance of electronic monitoring
14 device; damage. (a) Unless the covered offender is 15 incarcerated or has registered with a designated law enforcement
16 agency after establishing residence in another state, every five 17 years, the covered offender shall report in person to the 18 attorney general for periodic maintenance of the electronic 19 monitoring device.

20 (b) In the event of damage to the electronic monitoring
21 device of a degree that would render location identification
22 inoperative, the covered offender shall immediately inform the

1 attorney general's office of such damage and, within four hours
2 of such damage, report in person to the attorney general, or 3 their designee, for repair or replacement of the device.

4 §846E-C Termination of electronic monitoring

5 requirements. (a) A successful petition for termination of 6 registration requirements under section 846E-10 shall also 7 terminate all electronic monitoring requirements.

8 (b) No separate petition for termination of electronic 9 monitoring requirements shall be made to a court."

10 SECTION 3. Section 846E-9, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 11 amended to read as follows:

12 "§846E-9 Failure to comply with covered offender
13 registration requirements; electronic monitoring requirements.

14 (a) A person commits the offense of failure to comply with 15 covered offender registration and electronic monitoring
16 requirements if the person is required to register under this 17 chapter and the person intentionally, knowingly, or recklessly:

- 4                   days whenever the provisions of section 846E-2(g)
- 5                   require the person to do so;
- 6           (7) Fails to notify the attorney general or the Hawaii
- 7                   criminal justice data center of a change of any of the
- 8                   covered offender's registration information in writing
- 9                   within three working days of the change;
- 10          (8) Provides false registration information to the
- 11                   attorney general, the Hawaii criminal justice data
- 12                   center, or a chief of police;
- 13          (9) Signs a statement verifying that all of the
- 14                   registration information is accurate and current when
- 15                   any of the registration information is not
- 16                   substantially accurate and current;
- 17          (10) Having failed to establish a new residence within the
- 18                   ten days while absent from the person's registered
- 19                   residence for ten or more days:
- 20                   (A) Fails to notify the attorney general in writing
- 21                               within three working days that the person no

- 1 longer resides at the person's registered
- 2 residence; or

- 4 by the last day of every month; [~~e~~]
- 5 (11) Fails to mail or deliver the periodic verification of
- 6 registration information form to the attorney general
- 7 within ten days of receipt, as required by section
- 8 846E-5; provided that it shall be an affirmative
- 9 defense that the periodic verification form mailed to
- 10 the covered offender was delivered when the covered
- 11 offender was absent from the registered address and
- 12 the covered offender had previously notified the
- 13 Hawaii criminal justice data center that the covered
- 14 offender would be absent during the period that the
- 15 periodic verification form was delivered; or
- 16 (12) Fails to appear before the attorney general to submit
- 17 to electronic monitoring;
- 18 (13) Fails to report in person every five years before the
- 19 attorney general, or their designee, for maintenance
- 20 on the electronic monitoring device;
- 21 (14) Fails to report in person, within four hours, before
- 22 the attorney general, or their designee, for repair or

1           replacement of the electronic monitoring device in the 2           event of damage to the electronic monitoring device of
3           a degree that would render location identification
4           inoperative; or

5           (15) Inflicts damage to the electronic monitoring device to 6           a degree that would render location identification
7           inoperative.

8           [~~(b)~~] (c) Failure to comply with covered offender
9 registration and electronic monitoring requirements is a class
