SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

REQUESTING THE DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION TO CONVENE A PUBLIC CHARTER SCHOOLS EQUITABLE FEDERAL FUNDING TASK FORCE TO STUDY AND MAKE RECOMMENDATIONS ON ENHANCING HAWAII'S EFFORTS TO OBTAIN INCREASED FEDERAL FUNDING FOR PUBLIC CHARTER SCHOOLS AND CORRECTING ANY INEQUITIES OR INCONSISTENCIES IN DISTRIBUTION OF FEDERAL FUNDING AMONG PUBLIC CHARTER SCHOOLS.

1 WHEREAS, charter schools in Hawaii are public schools
2 established with the intent and purpose of supporting new
3 approaches to public education that accommodate individual needs
4 of students, provide the State with successful templates that
5 dramatically improve educational standards for the twenty-first
6 century, and create genuine opportunities for communities to 7 implement innovative models of community-based education; and 8

9 WHEREAS, questions have been raised regarding parity of
10 federal funding for public charter school students, Hawaii
11 Department of Education services and funding of public charter
12 school students, and the distribution of formula-based funding
13 to public charter schools; and
14

15 WHEREAS, the Task Force on Charter School Governance,
16 Accountability, and Authority, established by Act 130, Session
17 Laws of Hawaii 2011, in its report to the Legislature stated in 18 pertinent part (p. 1):
19

20 "Specifically, the goal of the Task Force was to 21 provide clarity to the relationships, responsibilities, and 22 lines of accountability and authority among stakeholders of 23 Hawaii's charter school system, including the Board of 24 Education, Department of Education, Charter School
25 Administrative Office, Charter School Review Panel, and 26 local school boards"; and
27

1 WHEREAS, the Task Force further stated in pertinent part
2 (p. 4):
3

4 "To meet the objectives of Act 130, the Task Force was 5 ultimately guided by a statement made by NACSA [National
6 Association of Charter School Authorizers]: "Autonomy Plus
7 Accountability Equals Increased Student Outcomes." As noted
8 in NACSA's report, while Hawaii has historically been very 9 strong on giving autonomy to charter schools, it is 10 severely lacking in the area of accountability, resulting 11 in serious questions about student outcomes"; and
12

13 WHEREAS, with regard to funding, the Task Force stated in 14 pertinent part (pp. 13-14):
15

16 "The final option explored by the working group was 17 what the Task Force deemed the "Nuclear Model." Under the 18 Nuclear Model, a separate support office would not be 19 established. Instead, this scenario would require the 20 direct interaction of the Department of Education and the 21 authorizer over access to and distribution of federal 22 funds. It would also require direct reporting from the 23 authorizer to the Department in meeting federal funding
24 reporting requirements. . . .
25

26 * * *

27
28 In order to implement the Nuclear Model discussed
29 above, the Task Force recommends the adoption of statutory 30 language requiring the authorizer to:
31

32 * * *

33
34 [r]eceive per pupil funding from the Department of Budget
35 and Finance and distribute the funding to the public
36 charter school it authorizes"; and
37

38 WHEREAS, under the subheading "Items for Continued
39 Discussion", the Task Force stated in pertinent part (p. 20):
40

41 "The Task Force recognizes the enormity of challenges
42 facing Hawaii's charter school system. Due to the short
43 time line available to the Task Force, and the complexity
44 of the issues discussed, the Task Force was unable to

1 address certain issues in great detail. The Task Force
2 believes the following issues deserve continued discussion
3 among charter school stakeholders:

- 4 (1) Special education issues;
- 5 (2) Funding, including facilities and transportation;
6 and
- 7 (3) Collective bargaining"; and

8
9
10
11
12 WHEREAS, the inconsistent calculation of charter school
13 funding should be addressed to ensure that an equitable amount
14 of resources and opportunities for learning are provided to
15 charter school students and public non-charter school students
16 alike; now, therefore,

17
