RE: H.B. 235, H.D. 1; RELATING TO COLLECTION OF RESTITUTION FOR CRIME VICTIMS.

Chair Hee, Vice-Chair Shimabukuro, and members of the Senate Committee on Judiciary and Labor, the Department of the Prosecuting Attorney of the City and County of Honolulu submits the following testimony, in strong support of H.B. 235, H.D. 1.

The purpose of this bill is to clarify the definition of "victim" in section 706-646, Hawai'i Revised Statutes ("HRS"), to include any duly incorporated humane society or society for the prevention of cruelty to animals, contracted with the State or county to enforce animal-related statutes or ordinances, that impounds, holds, or receives custody of a pet animal pursuant to HRS §711-1109.1, §711-1109.2, and §711-1110.5.

In a recent decision by the Circuit Court of the First Circuit (State of Hawaii v. David Lee Becker, Cr. No. 12-1-1202), the court denied restitution to the Hawaiian Humane Society ("HHS")--for expenses incurred in caring for 153 dogs previously subjected to animal cruelty in the second degree--on the basis that HHS was neither a governmental agency, nor the "direct victim" of the crime committed. Although HHS was legally obligated to assume care for these animals, and became the legal owner of all 153 dogs upon forfeiture proceedings, the court held that HHS was not the "actual owner" of the dogs, and thus not entitled to restitution under HRS §706-646.

The court, in reaching its decision, opined that "the plain language of the restitution statute [HRS §706-646] is clear it does not give me the authority to order restitution to the [Hawaiian] Humane Society in this circumstance." Thus, H.B. 235, H.D. 1, provides clear language to allow HHS, and other duly incorporated humane societies contracted with the counties, to receive restitution for expenses incurred when caring for an animal as a result of animal forfeiture or impoundment. We will defer to the various county humane societies, as to whether or not they can show that specific expenses resulting from a particular case are not "costs that have already been contracted and provided for by the counties or State."

For the foregoing reasons, the Department of the Prosecuting Attorney, City and County of Honolulu, strongly supports H.B. 235, H.D. 1. Thank you for the opportunity to testify on this matter.

RE: Support HB235, HDI with Amendments; Relating to Collection of Restitution for Crime Victims

The Hawaiian Humane Society supports the passage of HB235, HDI with amendments.

Where a defendant is convicted of animal cruelty and the victim animal was seized by the police and given over to a humane society for the rehabilitation and care, it is reasonable that the defendant be responsible for the medical care and rehabilitation of that animal. The function of restitution is to return the victim back to the original state prior to the criminal violation.

We urge the Committee to make the following amendment: to remove "provided that this section does not apply to costs that have already been contracted and provided for by the counties or State" (lines 2 – 4, page 2). This clause is not applicable as the animal control contract is negotiated at the beginning of the contract term. Thus, the contract amount is not retrospective in that we cannot ask for the expenses on rehabilitating an animal after the fact. Therefore, this clause is not necessary.

In the Waimanalo puppy mill case, the court awarded the Hawaiian Humane Society forfeiture of the abused animals thereby making the Hawaiian Humane Society the legal owners. However, at David Becker's sentencing, the court denied The People's request to order Defendant to pay restitution to the Hawaiian Humane Society, reasoning that "the plain language of the restitution statute is clear it does not give me the authority to order restitution to the [Hawaiian] Humane Society in this circumstance," distinguishing between "legal" versus "actual" owners. This court's decision was not only unreasonable but also antithetical to the meaning and function of restitution.

Thank you for the opportunity to testify in support of HB235, HDI with amendments as it relates to restitution for crime victims. On behalf of the Hawaiian Humane Society, I ask for your support in passing this measure.

Comments: I strongly support HB 235. Organizations that incur expenses caring for the victims who cannot care for themselves, should be reimbursed. It is not right that they should have to pay for doing the humane thing. Thank you. Ginny Tiu

Comments: It is crucial that Humane Societies be included in "victim restitution" definition in order for these societies working against animal cruelty cases have a chance to recuperate some of the necessary funds spent on rescuing missions. These funds are important and enable these societies to continue with their work in pursuing other cruelty cases. For the animals ' sake, please support this Bill. Your kind consideration is so appreciated. Mahalo Nui Loa!
