Comments: Indonesia is the key state in Southeast Asia and a major nation of the Asia- Pacific region. The Comprehensive Partnership agreement between the United States and Indonesia is a major context and channel for U.S.-Indonesian relations across a broad array of fields. As the United States' only Pacific state, Hawaii benefits broadly from the U.S.- Indonesian relationship and would gain direct benefit from the further strengthening and deepening of that relationship. Accordingly, I strongly endorse this resolution and hope for its favorable consideration by the Hawaii State Legislature.
