JUSTIFICATION SHEET

DEPARTMENT: Taxation.

TITLE: A BILL FOR AN ACT RELATING TO BOARDS OF REVIEW.

PURPOSE: Allows for up to three boards of review per taxation district and allows members of one board to be temporarily assigned to another board within the same district for purposes of establishing quorum.

MEANS: Amend section 232-6 and section 232-7, Hawaii Revised Statutes (HRS).

JUSTIFICATION: Currently, there are more than 200 cases pending review by the Boards of Review. Although internal processes need to be streamlined to address this backlog of cases, due to the number of cases, additional Boards will need to be created to assist with providing a hearing for each of these cases.

Board members are volunteers, many of whom work full-time. Creation of additional Boards and allowing for the substitution of Board members, will help to ensure that cases before the Board can be addressed in a timely fashion.

Impact on the public: The proposed changes will support the Department's efforts to reduce the time taxpayers must wait to have their cases heard by the Board of Review.

Impact on the department and other agencies: Reducing the backlog of cases pending a Board of Review hearing will enable the Department to dispose of pending cases and collect outstanding tax assessments.

GENERAL FUND: Pending.
