
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO THE DISPOSITION OF THE CONVEYANCE TAX COLLECTIONS TO THE RENTAL HOUSING TRUST FUND.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. Recognizing the need to address the shortfall
2 in affordable rental housing units, the legislature raised the 3 allocation of the conveyance tax to the rental housing trust
4 fund to fifty per cent in 2006. However, due to the economic 5 crisis and recession of 2008 through 2010 the allocation to the 6 rental housing trust fund has been reduced to thirty per cent to 7 address the State's budget crisis.

8 The legislature finds that the State continues to face
9 unique challenges related to affordable housing. The lack of 10 available land, low wage positions coupled with the high cost of 11 living, the high cost of construction, and shortage of public
12 funds are only some of the factors that have contributed to one
13 of the lowest rates of home ownership in the country and a
14 strong need for affordable rental housing.

15 The legislature further finds that renters in Hawaii face
16 many challenges. A 2011 Center for Housing Policy report noted 17 that Honolulu was tied for being the least affordable city for

1 renters nationwide. Honolulu was also ranked the third most 2 expensive city for rentals. The need for affordable housing in 3 Hawaii also affects moderate-income families. Individuals
4 falling into this gap group of average wage earners face
5 challenges, as they earn too much to qualify for low-income
6 housing programs, yet earn too little to afford market rate
7 housing.

8 The legislature also finds that according to the 2011
9 Hawaii Housing Planning Study, the number of new housing units
10 that will have to be built between 2012 and 2016 to meet new 11 demand generated by changing demographic and economic conditions
12 might be as high as fifty thousand. Units that are not built
13 represent the shortage of units needed to fill the total demand
14 for housing units. This shortage, known as needed units, is the 15 difference between total housing demand and expected supply.
16 The projected number of needed units in the State through 2016
17 includes over six thousand ownership units and thirteen thousand 18 rental units for households with less than eighty per cent of 19 the area median income. During this same five-year period, 20 about two thousand six hundred affordable for-sale units and 21 over two thousand one hundred rental units will be needed to 22 meet the housing requirements of households earning between

1 eighty per cent and one hundred forty per cent of the area
2 median income; these are households that fall into the gap group
3 of wage earners.

4 The legislature additionally finds that rising housing
5 costs are associated with increased homelessness or families at 6 risk of becoming homeless. According to the 2012 Homeless
7 Service Utilization Report developed by the Center on the Family
8 at the University of Hawaii at Manoa, a total of 13,980
9 individuals statewide experienced homelessness and received
10 shelter or outreach services during the 2012 fiscal year. This 11 figure includes those individuals who are at risk of losing 12 their housing.

13 The legislature finds that Hawaii has a definite, immediate 14 need for affordable housing. Addressing these needs will be a
15 challenge because of the sheer number of units needed to meet
16 demand and the various barriers that can prevent development and 17 preservation of affordable housing. Therefore, the public
18 sector, the private sector, and other interested stakeholders in 19 the community must work together to ensure that Hawaii's
20 residents have access to affordable housing.

21 The purpose of this Act is to support Hawaii's goal of 22 meeting the projected number of needed affordable housing units

1 in the State by restoring the allocation of the conveyance tax
2 to the rental housing trust fund to fifty per cent.

3 SECTION 2. Section 247-7, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 4 amended to read as follows:

5 "§247-7 Disposition of taxes. All taxes collected under 6 this chapter shall be paid into the state treasury to the credit
7 of the general fund of the State, to be used and expended for 8 the purposes for which the general fund was created and exists
9 by law; provided that of the taxes collected each fiscal year:

- 10 (1) Ten per cent shall be paid into the land conservation
11 fund established pursuant to section 173A-5;
- 12 (2) Twenty-five per cent from July 1, 2009, until June 30, 13 2012 [~~, and~~]; thirty per cent from July 1, 2012, until 14 June 30, 2014; and fifty per cent in each fiscal year
15 thereafter shall be paid into the rental housing trust
16 fund established by section 201H-202; and
- 17 (3) Twenty per cent from July 1, 2009, until June 30,
18 2012, and twenty-five per cent in each fiscal year
19 thereafter shall be paid into the natural area reserve
20 fund established by section 195-9; provided that the 21 funds paid into the natural area reserve fund shall be

1 annually disbursed by the department of land and 2 natural resources in the following priority:

- 3 (A) To natural area partnership and forest
4 stewardship programs after joint consultation
5 with the forest stewardship committee and the 6 natural area reserves system commission;
- 7 (B) Projects undertaken in accordance with watershed
8 management plans pursuant to section 171-58 or 9 watershed management plans negotiated with 10 private landowners, and management of the natural
11 area reserves system pursuant to section 195-3; 12 and
- 13 (C) The youth conservation corps established under 14 chapter 193."

15 SECTION 3. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed
16 and stricken. New statutory material is underscored.

17 SECTION 4. This Act shall take effect on July 1, 2050.
