

JUDICIARY OVERVIEW

MISSION: The mission of the Judiciary, as an independent branch of government, is to administer justice in an impartial, efficient, and accessible manner in accordance with the law. As the third branch of Hawaii's State Government, it is invested by Article VI of the State Constitution with powers coequal to those of the Legislative and Executive Branches.

Within the Judiciary, the major program categories are court operations and support services. The programs in the court operations category serve to safeguard the rights and interests of persons by assuring an equitable and expeditious judicial process. These include the Courts of Appeal (JUD 101); and the First, Second, Third, and Fifth Circuits (JUD 310, 320, 330, and 350, respectively). Programs in the support services category enhance the effectiveness and efficiency of the judicial system by providing the various courts with administrative services such as fiscal control and direction of operations and personnel, and fall under the title of Administration (JUD 601). Within Administration are the Offices of the Administrative and Deputy Administrative Director of the Courts, and five departments – Intergovernmental and Community Relations, Policy and Planning, Information Technology and Systems, Financial Services, and Human Resources. Further details on the functions and activities of the programs in each of the categories can be found in Table 1.

ECONOMIC IMPACT: The Judiciary recognizes that the economy and overall economic outlook for Hawai'i have significantly improved relative to the last two fiscal biennia. However, the economic and revenue conditions, and the actions taken as a result of those conditions during those two biennia, had severe effects on the Judiciary – that is, on its funding situation, on its employees, and on its ability to provide complete, timely services to its clientele and to the public. Specifically, between FY 2009 and FY 2013, the Legislature reduced the Judiciary's budget base by 10.3%, or $15.4 million; and eliminated 79 vacant positions, or 4% of the Judiciary's authorized permanent staffing, although it did provide 22 new positions in FY 2010 for Kapolei and 15 positions in FY 2013, mainly for security at the Detention Home and for staffing the Community Service Sentencing Programs on the neighbor islands. In FY 2014, $12.1 million and six new positions (two for a juvenile weekend and restitution program and four forensic analysts for the neighbor island Children's Justice Centers) were added to the Judiciary's budget base so that its base now is only some $3.2 million less than it was in FY 2009. However, most of the funds added to the Judiciary's budget since its low point in FY 2011 have related to pay restoration and collective bargaining increases so that payroll is now 72% of the Judiciary's budget as compared to 68% in FY 2009. This equates to a loss of some $7 million in non-payroll operating funding which, in turn, continues to impact the Judiciary in its ability to cover and restore funding in areas where it took cuts and where costs continue to increase – utilities, per diem judges, purchase of services (POS) contracts, repair and maintenance, and forms/supplies/printing to name a few. Further, the effect of the some 36 fewer positions relative to FY 2009 continues to be felt as many of the 79 vacant positions eliminated were in the process of recruitment and important to the affected programs.

As mentioned above, the impact of the budget and personnel reductions that occurred is still being felt throughout the Judiciary, especially considering that the Judiciary has no control over its workload and has had to accommodate that workload with less people and less non-payroll operating financial resources. This has resulted in (1) cases and hearings sometimes took longer to get scheduled, heard, and resolved; and (2) the elimination or reduction of important services being provided by or through the Judiciary. These conditions continue to linger to a certain extent, as positions and non- payroll operating funding have not been restored and as the caseload continues to increase. For example, the number of pending civil actions at the end of FY 2013, as compared to the end of FY 2008, increased by 202% in the District Courts and 83% in the Circuit Courts (if we just compare FY 2011 and FY 2012, the increase was 29% and 14% in the District and Circuit Courts, respectively). For criminal actions, the number of cases pending at the end of FY 2013 increased by 11% for District Courts and 9% for Circuit Courts relative to FY 2008 (comparing FY 2013 to FY 2012 shows a 7% decrease for District Courts while an almost 8% increase for Circuit Courts).

As noted previously, the budget situation resulted in the Judiciary reducing funding for POS contracts; actual POS contract expenditures decreased by more than $3 million (27%) between FY 2009 and FY 2013. These types of contracts involve the purchase of assessment and/or treatment services for substance abuse, child sex abuse, and mental health, as well as domestic violence emergency shelter services, juvenile client and family services, victim impact classes, individual/group counseling, and more. Portions of some of these programs/services were eliminated while others were significantly reduced. Cuts severely impacted treatment courts and resulted in fewer services being available and fewer clients served, and longer waits to access services resulting in less adherence to program goals and a slow-down in admittance. However, the Judiciary is very appreciative that the Legislature generously provided more than $600,000 in funding for FY 2014 to begin the POS restoration process.

PERFORMANCE MEASUREMENT: In spite of this increase in pending cases at year end referred to earlier, it is interesting to note that the median age for disposition of a case has generally decreased in FY 2013, as can be seen in a comparison of the median time to disposition of a case by circuit for FY 2009 (before the budget and personnel reduction), FY2011 (budget reduction, personnel reduction, and furloughs in full effect), and FY 2013 (post furloughs). For First Circuit, the median time went from 265 to 302 to 281 days for the three fiscal years for criminal cases, and from 393 to 421 to 388 days for civil cases. For Second Circuit, the median time was 231 to 297 to 239 days for criminal cases and 294 to 307 to 350 days for civil cases. For Third Circuit, criminal cases went from 301 to 321 to 279 days and civil cases went from 298 to 346 to 333 days. Lastly, for Fifth Circuit, criminal cases went from 307 to 273 to 320 days and civil cases from 400 to 300 to 279 days. Generally, the median time to disposition in days increased during the furlough period and came back down in FY 2013, although not quite to FY 2009 levels. The clearance rate (number of new filings divided by number of cases terminated or disposed) is another performance measure that can be looked at. The Intermediate Court of Appeals had a disposition rate of 108% in FY 2013 as compared to 76% in FY 2011, and the clearance rate for Circuit, Family, and District Court cases (excluding parking cases) in FY 2013 was 72.9.2%, 96.5%, and 91.1% as compared to 81.2%, 97.3%, and 98.1%, respectively, in FY 2011. The FY 2013 Circuit Court rates were adversely affected by the large increase in filings in FYs 2012 and 2013 for foreclosure cases that had not yet been heard and disposed of at year end.

FEDERAL FUNDS: The Judiciary is unaware of and has not identified any programs that may lose federal funds under the Federal Budget Control Act sequester.

BUDGET REQUEST: In late July each year, the Budget Office prepares and distributes a Budget Instruction package to its programs, requesting them to provide their budget requests and associated write-ups to the Budget Office by early September. The Chief Justice and Administrative Director of the Courts are also asked to provide information as to any specific items or other guidance that the Budget Office might want to focus on or consider. Once the budget support packages are received from the programs, the Budget Office reviews them, requests further information from the programs as necessary, and then makes a preliminary determination as to which requests are supportable, justified, and the Judiciary should go forward with. These requests, along with those not recommended, are reviewed with the Administrative Director and the Chief Justice and a final decision is made as to which items should be part of the Judiciary's budget request. The programs prioritize their requests when they submit them to the Budget Office. However, once the final decision is made as to which budget request items to submit to the Legislature, the Budget Office, in conjunction with the Administrative Director of the Courts and the Chief Justice, prioritizes the requests Judiciary-wide.

With regard to our budget requests for the supplemental year, we are well aware that in keeping with the biennium budget concept, supplemental budget resources will be requested largely to address unforeseen developments, inadvertent oversights, and other special circumstances which might cause hardship on those we serve. In addition, we are quite mindful of the many competing demands for the limited resources available. Accordingly, the Judiciary has tried to be very prudent in its supplemental budget request and focus on only its most pressing needs relative to the clients and public it serves, as well as to its own operations and staff.

Overall, the Judiciary is requesting 18 new permanent positions and additional funding of $4.8 million for FY 2015. Some of our requests focus on our especially vulnerable clients, and relate to maintaining and expanding the number of First Circuit clients who receive services for mental health issues; providing for new interview recording equipment for Children's Justice Center locations on all islands so that children who have been sexually abused or witnesses to violent crimes will not have to be re-interviewed and re-traumatized due to faulty recording equipment; and establishing an additional Office of Public Guardian position to help better manage clients assigned who cannot fend for themselves. Another set of requests relate to adult and juvenile offenders and Family Court matters. Specifically, First Circuit has requested supplemental resources to maintain and expand its Project HOPE (Hawaii's Opportunity Probation with Enforcement) program, to continue restoration of POS contract funding to provide essential treatment to adult and juvenile offenders and their victims, to lease space in Kapolei to further consolidate Family Court functions in one geographic location and be more efficient, and to establish a Family Court mediator position to provide an on-site alternative to expensive and timely litigation. Other supplemental resources are being requested in the court operations and services area; for example, funding for a First Circuit position to help with the managing and scheduling of court interpreters, to update the audio/visual system that produces official records of court proceedings in the 14 courtrooms in Kapolei, for additional bailiff positions for Kohala/Hamakua and Hilo Family Courts, and to hire two special duty police officers to provide security for the Kona Circuit and Family Courts. The last area of concern for which the Judiciary is requesting supplemental resources are areas which affect the Judiciary overall, or affect the staff, their operations and their performance of duties. Specifically, funding is being requested for such items as training of judges and staff, an identified area of concern; a new multi-point control unit for video-conferencing; a Capital Improvement Program (CIP) Specialist position to assist with the numerous CIP jobs and maintenance concerns for aging facilities; and salary adjustments for the judges based on the 2013 Commission on Salaries recommendation and for the Administrative and Deputy Administrative Director of the Courts based on a bill introduced this session.

Capital Improvement Project (CIP) requirements remain a major item of concern as the Judiciary's infrastructure continues to age and deteriorate, and as the population served and corresponding demand for services provided by the Judiciary keep increasing. To that end and like last year, the number one priority item in the CIP area is the Kona Judiciary Complex and the need for an additional $81 million for construction of this vitally needed project. Other CIP construction funding is being requested for elevator replacement at Ka'ahumanu Hale (the Circuit Court Building on O'ahu). In addition, CIP planning funding has been included for Ka'ahumanu Hale cellblock redesign; upgrade of the air conditioning and ventilation systems at Kauikeaouli Hale (the District Court Building on O'ahu), and the air conditioning system at Lahaina District Court Building; and upgrade of the fire alarm systems and assessment of all parking structure systems (e.g., fire sprinkler, sewage, storm drainage, and air conditioning piping) at Hoapili Hale (the Circuit Court Building on Maui). In total, the Judiciary is requesting almost $89.2 million in CIP funding for FY 2015.

In sum, the Judiciary recognizes the State still has important fiscal concerns even as the economy and revenues continue to improve. Our total general fund budget request is approximately $149.2 million in FY 2015 which is about $4.8 million more than our current budget base. We believe that this additional amount is a relatively small amount to enhance court and client services; ensure the protection of the public, employees, and clients alike; continue our emphasis on access to justice; and provide for employee training, productivity, and morale concerns and needs.

This concludes the overview section of our testimony. It should be noted that the 24 tables and the organizational charts requested by the November 18, 2013 Budget Briefing Instructions follow this overview section.

2	Central Administration
	The primary objectives of the programs in each circuit include providing for effective and efficient planning, direction, administration, coordination, and evaluation of all administrative business and support functions, operations, and activities required to support judicial proceedings and judgements in the Circuit, District, and Family Courts.	Circuit Courts are trial courts of general jurisdiction. Circuit Courts have jurisdiction in most felony cases, and concurrent jurisdiction with the Family Courts for certain felonies related to domestic abuse, such as violations of temporary restraining orders involving family and household members. Circuit Courts also have exclusive jurisdiction in probate, trust, and conservatorship (formerly "guardian of the property") proceedings, and concurrent jurisdiction with the Family Courts over adult guardianship (formerly "guardian of the person") proceedings. Circuit Courts have exclusive jurisdiction in civil cases involving amounts greater than $25,000, and concurrent jurisdiction with District Courts in civil cases involving amounts between $10,000 and $25,000. Jury trials are conducted exclusively by Circuit Court judges. A party to a civil case triable by jury may demand a jury trial where the amount in controversy exceeds $5,000. Circuit Courts have exclusive jurisdiction in mechanics lien cases and foreclosure cases, and jurisdiction as provided by law in appeals from other agencies (such as unemployment compensation appeals).

3	Client Services
	The primary objective is to provide direct services to adult and juvenile clients of courts within the First, Second, Third, and Fifth Circuits. Activities include making recommendations to the courts, enforcing compliance with court orders, maintaining client classification and information systems, managing purchase of service contracts, and maintaining contacts with community resources.	Circuit Court programs include alternatives to traditional dispute resolution methods. The Circuit Court Drug Court Programs aim to divert nonviolent defendants from the traditional criminal justice path and incarceration, placing them in treatment programs under judicial supervision, rewarding good behavior, and imposing immediate sanctions for relapse into drug use. The Circuit Court's Court Annexed Arbitration Program is designed to reduce the cost and delay of protracted civil litigation, requiring tort actions with a probable jury award value under $150,000 to be submitted to the program and be subject to a determination of arbitrability and to arbitration under program rules.

4	Court Services
	Court Services are responsible for providing courtroom clerical, court reporting, and other support and ancillary services to the courts of the First, Second, Third, and Fifth Circuits. Programs are designed to aid in the timely disposition of cases of general and limited jurisdiction for civil, criminal felonies, misdemeanors, petty misdemeanors, family proceedings, and traffic (decriminalized and regular traffic criminal) in each circuit.	The Family Courts, divisions of the Circuit Courts, are specialized courts of record designed to deal with family conflict and juvenile offenders. The Family Court complements its strictly adjudicatory functions by providing a number of counseling, guidance, detention, mediation, education, and supervisory programs for children and adults. The Family Courts retain jurisdiction over children who, while under the age of 18, violate any law or ordinance, are neglected or abandoned, are beyond the control of their parents or other custodians, live in an environment injurious to their welfare, or behave in a manner injurious to their own or others' welfare. Activities are geared toward facilitating the determination of the court for appropriate and timely dispositions; preparing cases for detention, adjudicatory, and dispositional hearings; conducting social study investigations; and supervising and treating juveniles under legal status with the court. Family Court activities also include Foster Home placement and providing guardians ad-litem.

		The Family Court's jurisdiction also encompasses adults involved in offenses against other family members; dissolution of marriages; disputed child custody and visitation issues; resolution of paternity issues; adoptions; and adults who are incapacitated and/or are in need of protection. The Family Courts provide services which include temporary restraining orders for protection; treatment of parties involved in domestic violence; supervision and monitoring of defendants in domestic abuse cases; and education programs for separating parents and children.
		The District Courts are the courts with which the citizens of Hawai'i most frequently come into contact. In the First Circuit, courthouses in the four rural judicial districts of Ewa/Pearl City, Waianae, Wahiawa, and Kaneohe provide residents with the option of conveniently staying within their respective communities to transact many types of court business. The District Courts, in civil matters, exercise jurisdiction where the amount in controversy does not exceed $25,000. If the amount in controversy exceeds $5,000, the parties may demand a jury trial, in which case the matter is committed to the Circuit Courts. The District Courts also have exclusive jurisdiction in all landlord-tenant cases and all small claims actions (suits in which the amount in controversy does not exceed $5,000). The civil divisions of the District Courts also handle temporary restraining orders and injunctions against harassment for non-household members.

*At this time there are no Judiciary special or revolving funds with balances in excess of program needs. Judiciary funds are self-sustaining and require year-end cash carryover balances to ensure long-term fund solvency. Each year, fund revenues collected are added to prior year cash carryover balances to provide the operating resources which support the planned program operations of each Judiciary fund. Therefore, although cash carryover balances may appear to be in "excess" of program needs, this is not the case. In some years annual fund operating requirements have exceeded annual fund revenues meaning that funds were only able to carry out planned program activities and remain solvent by accessing carryover cash balances. Regarding the Driver Education and Training Special Fund (DETF), the recent transfer-out of -$1.5 million to the State General Fund has significantly reduced the carryover cash balance, and created the potential for a "cash-flow" fund deficit and fund insolvency if the payment of required operating expenses from the DETF is not matched by a timely offsetting revenue deposit.

PROJECT INFORMATION AND JUSTIFICATION (use back if necessary):

a. Total Scope of Project.

In March 2012, Chief Justice Mark E. Recktenwald announced the Judiciary's initial selection of an approximately ten acre site in the Kealakehe area for this project, located in the immediate vicinity of the County of Hawai'i's civic center complex and consisting primarily of State-owned land assigned by Executive Order to the Hawai'i Housing Finance and Development Corporation (HHFDC). Subsequently, however, this site, along with extensive State-owned and privately-owned surrounding acreage, was proposed to be designated for critical habitat status by the U. S. Fish and Wildlife Service (USFWS), and an endangered plant species was found on adjacent property which would result in possibly costly and lengthy negotiations with the USFWS. As a result, the Judiciary, together with DLNR, DAGS, and its architectural consultants, began critically re-evaluating and opening discussions with property owners of the other sites identified in the project final site selection / environmental impact study (SS/EIS) report. Subsequently, in October 2013, the Chief Justice announced a change in the site selected for the Kona Judiciary Complex to a property owned by Queen Lili'uokalani Trust. In the meantime, pre-design programming for the building under DAGS and its architectural consultants has continued, funded by appropriations from Fiscal Biennium 2011-2013. The request for this biennium is for additional design funding related to the planning and design for the facility's fixtures, furniture, and equipment (FF&E), and, most significantly, the "lion's share" of the construction funding that was not appropriated under Act 133 / 2013.

The Kona community remains sorely in need of new and more satisfactory court facilities. West Hawai'i residents have expressed a very real concern about the state of the facilities in which the Judiciary is currently housed, especially regarding the crowded and inadequate conditions at the Keākealani Building. These facilities were never designed or intended to house court operations, and certainly not to handle the sheer volume that they do at present. There is simply inadequate room for both Judiciary staff and members of the public. The security situation is also troublesome due to the unavoidable crossing of paths by custodies, staff, and members of the public, as well as the extremely limited custody holding accommodations. It is for these reasons that this project had been designated as the Judiciary's first CIP priority, for both Fiscal Biennium 2013-2015, and for the foreseeable future.

The prospect of a new Kona Judiciary Complex has received widespread support from throughout the west Hawai'i community. Agencies and entities that have particularly expressed interest and support include the Hawai'i County Police Department, the Department of Public Safety, the Prosecuting Attorney's Office, the Public Defender's Office, the Department of the Attorney General, private attorneys, and various civic groups including rotary clubs, chambers of commerce, and area merchant associations.

b. Identification of Need and Evaluation of Existing Situation.

The Third Circuit (the Big Island) in general suffers from a gross lack of court facilities. In Hilo, the situation was finally relieved when the new Hilo Judiciary Complex came "on line" in the spring of 2009. In Kona, meanwhile, this lack of space has led to the leasing of space for Family Court and most probation functions in one private building since the early 1990's, and in another location more recently for the Third Circuit's growing drug court operations and other Circuit Court-level functions. The drivers' education program is in yet another separate leased location. These disparate locations and scattered operations have created functional and management difficulties, as well as diluting the already scarce security resources that are provided by the Department of Public Safety sheriffs.

c. Alternatives Considered and Impact If Project Is Deferred.

The alternative of leasing additional space indefinitely has been considered, but it is clearly not a plausible long-term strategy. As noted, the Judiciary is presently leasing space at several locations in the Kona area, which is not only costly, but also fragments the services provided to the community. Fragmenting court services in this way causes operational and management inefficiencies, as well as results in substandard service to the public. Moreover, additional lease space for normal expansion purposes that would be suited to the specialized requirements of Judiciary operations is in extremely short supply throughout the Kona coast, so that even if leasing space for the foreseeable future is what occurs, the problems of security, accessibility, and servicability would continue to hamper Third Circuit-Kona area operations.

If this project is deferred, the Third Circuit will be unable to satisfactorily meet the demands for its services throughout the western half of the island of Hawai'i. Court operations will continue to be fragmented with both people and case files shuttled about. Court operations will also remain inefficient due to the continued need to contend with the problems of security, witness-defendant contact, juror-party contact, and other overcrowding-related difficulties. Due to the unique nature of court operations, it remains imperative that court facilities be secure venues which promote a civil means for conflict resolution.

d. Discuss What Improvements Will Take Place When Project Completed (including benefits to be derived and/or deficiencies this project intends to correct).

A new Kona Judiciary Complex would consolidate, for the first time, all of the Judiciary's programs in west Hawai'i in one location. The Third Circuit's operations in the Kona area are located in separate and dispersed facilities: the Keākealani ("Old Kona Hospital") Building and various separate leased properties. With the completion and occupancy of the new judiciary complex in Hilo, the goal for Kona is to similarly have a permanent, full-service court facility where persons having business with the courts can transact all of their court-related business at one centralized location. Documents and files can be handled directly without the need for courier services, and attorneys can move from court to court instead of driving around town, as is the case presently. Secured holding, law library, witness waiting and attorney interview rooms, jury accommodations, grand jury facilities, meeting / conference rooms, and full probation office services are among the many necessary, but currently non-existent amenities that a new judiciary complex could provide. Technologically equipped facilities, such as the Judiciary has begun to construct elsewhere in the state, will make the conducting of court business more efficient, effective, and secure.

e. Impact Upon Future Operating Requirements (show initial and ongoing funding requirements by cost element, including position count, means of financing, fiscal year).

As construction completion, along with subsequent occupancy and operation, are well into the future beyond the current budgetary time frame, operational funding requirements / costs and related impacts cannot currently be estimated this far in advance with any degree of certainty or accuracy, especially with economic cycles fluctuating between now and then. The Judiciary anticipates having an increasingly better idea over time the closer we get to this project being built.

We do believe, however, based on current budgeting and planning for the facilities that have been completed at Hilo and Kapolei, that annual costs to operate a facility of this general size and type could run about $1.9-2.0 million in today's dollars. The major recurring costs would be payroll for custodial and groundskeeping staff, maintenance service contracts for major building system equipment such as air conditioning and elevator machinery, monthly utility charges, and consumable cleaning and groundskeeping supplies. Additionally, the major initial non-capital improvement expenses would be for building maintenance equipment and utility set-up charges that would need to be funded within the Third Circuit's operating budget at the time of building opening, much as happened in FY 2008-2009 for the Hilo Judiciary Complex, and FY 2009-2010 for the now-occupied buildings at Kapolei in the First Circuit. These initial start-up operating costs can be expected to be $250,000 or more in today's dollars.

PROJECT DESCRIPTION: Develop an air conditioning (AC) improvements plan through a Planning study. Design First Phase of AC and ventilation system remediation, reconfiguration, and upgrades project.

Review and address major issues identified in the Welsh Retro-Commissioning Report. Investigate, document and recommend additional remediation for problems that have arisen since the report was published.

PROJECT INFORMATION AND JUSTIFICATION (use back if necessary):

a. Total Scope of Project.

Review Welsh Report; update findings and recommendations to reflect current conditions as determined through interviews with Facilities personnel, field observations/investigations, and review of service records; reconfirm overall scope of work; develop phasing plan to create manageable construction packages; do concept designs and sufficient preliminary design work to develop reliable cost estimates for each package.

b. Identification of Need and Evaluation of Existing Situation.

Published in March, 2009, the Welsh Report found major portions of the existing air conditioning (AC) and ventilation system to be in fair to poor condition, energy inefficient, difficult to maintain and in need of replacement and/or reconfiguration. Since the publication of the report, some portions of the system, previously thought to be in good condition, have deteriorated. Lack of accessibility continues to make significant portions of the system difficult to maintain. Much of the system is original, dating back to the mid-1980's, and not optimized for energy efficiency and water conservation. The pneumatic controls system is at the end of its useful service life and is obsolete. The existing supply duct system is badly deteriorated and may become a health hazard. Due to the extent of the remediation recommended in the Welsh Report and the results expected from an update and because the building cannot be vacated to complete the upgrades within a single project, it is necessary to separate the proposed construction into reasonable packages. Judiciary would look to the expertise of the design team working in consultation with the building management from the First Circuit to develop and make reliable preliminary cost estimates for those packages.

c. Alternatives Considered and Impact If Project Is Deferred.

The Welsh Report proposed multiple alternatives and options that the consulting design team will be expected to evaluate. From those options and others, the consultant will develop a coherent and practical plan. Doing nothing would not be an option because equipment failures, system failures and the development of health hazards resulting from indoor air quality problems would force addressing the issues on a piecemeal, emergency, less efficient and more costly reactive basis. If the project is deferred, the likelihood is increased downtime of the building AC, more failures, continued inefficient and therefore costly operations and potential increased air quality hazards to the health of building occupants.

d. Discuss What Improvements Will Take Place When Project Completed (including benefits to be derived and/or deficiencies this project intends to correct).

The completion of the feasibility study will result in a phased plan by which the Judiciary can manageably begin to address the many concerns of the aged AC and ventilation system. The phasing plan will allow Judiciary to continue to operate its District Court system without closing the building and relocating its operations.

e. Impact Upon Future Operating Requirements (show initial and ongoing funding requirements by cost element, including position count, means of financing, fiscal year).

In the short term, the study will provide for the planful organization and budgeting of temporary relocations and consolidations required to support continued court operations. Long term, reconfiguration of portions of the system will improve AC and ventilation system access and maintainability and thereby reduce maintenance costs. Upgrading various portions of the system will improve energy efficiency and reduce water consumption, each of which will help to blunt future utility cost increases. Improvements in air quality will safeguard building occupant health and improve the working environment.

PROJECT INFORMATION AND JUSTIFICATION (use back if necessary):

a. Total Scope of Project.

The Design study prepared by Richard Matsunaga and Associates for the Ka`ahumanu Hale, Elevator System Upgrade and Modernization notes that the existing elevator system is obsolete and compromises safety and the ability to maintain the system. The current system is also not energy efficient. The project would include replacement of all cabs, renovation of machine rooms and replacement and upgrades to elevator lobbies. The project proposes to replace the existing geared traction machines with gearless machines. The new system would be safer, more energy efficient and less costly and easier to maintain.

b. Identification of Need and Evaluation of Existing Situation.

The existing system is a geared elevator system and is sufficiently old that parts are difficult to get and often must come from a third party supplier which may or may not completely meet manufacturers specs. Should the system be retained, it will become increasingly difficult to obtain parts and to keep the system in safe working order. The system is currently not very energy efficient and as it deteriorates this will continue to be the case. The consultant feels that this system is in as poor a condition as the recently replaced District Court system if not in worse condition. Geared elevator systems are generally considered obsolete and most systems are moving to a gearless model which is more energy efficient. To continue to maintain the existing system will be increasingly difficult if not impossible as parts become more and more difficult to find and the system deteriorates further with more down time and inconvenience to the public and other users of the building. Energy costs should the system be retained will also continue to rise. All of these conditions are documented in the Matsunaga study of August 2013.

c. Alternatives Considered and Impact If Project Is Deferred.

The report discussed the options of replacing the system with a geared system or a gearless system. A gearless system has been chosen as a geared system replacement would run the risk of replacing an obsolete system with a new system which would most likely become obsolete prior to the end of its life. The recently completed elevator replacement/modernization project at District Court replaced a geared system with a gearless system for these very reasons. The do nothing alternative was not considered as it would compromise the ability to maintain the safety of the system in the near term. Project deferral would potential compromise safety and thus the ability to keep the system functioning.

d. Discuss What Improvements Will Take Place When Project Completed (including benefits to be derived and/or deficiencies this project intends to correct).

The completion of the project will provide an upgraded elevator system which will increase safety, offset otherwise rising energy costs and provide for easier maintenance over the life of the system. Safety will be increased through the use of state of the art technology and provision of camera feeds and emergency PA systems in the elevators. Energy efficiency would be improved through the replacement of motor generated drives with new solid state direct motor drive units.

e. Impact Upon Future Operating Requirements (show initial and ongoing funding requirements by cost element, including position count, means of financing, fiscal year).

In the short term implementation of the project will cause some inconvenience to those using the building as only 3 of the 4 public elevators will operate at a time during construction and likewise only three of the four private elevators will operate at a time. This should not be a major inconvenience as the building is only four floors. When the custody elevator is down alternative arrangements will have to be made to transport custodies. Long term the project will result in increased safety, decreased energy utilization and easier maintenance of the system.

PROJECT INFORMATION AND JUSTIFICATION (use back if necessary):

a. Total Scope of Project.

Assessment of the Fire and Smoke Alarm Systems for Upgrade Recommendations.

b. Identification of Need and Evaluation of Existing Situation.

Existing system is outdated, not integrated and not in conformance to current codes. An upgraded alarm system will provide the capacity to alert the public, staff, fire department and sheriffs to properly evacuate the building and assist in the movement of detainees.

c. Alternatives Considered and Impact If Project Is Deferred.

No alternatives available. Existing system compromises safety for the public and employees within the courthouse during an emergency situation.

d. Discuss What Improvements Will Take Place When Project Completed (including benefits to be derived and/or deficiencies this project intends to correct).

The assessment will include recommendations for a system that will be tailored to the special needs of a courthouse setting. It is expected that the proposed system will report to the existing on site BAS computer which is web based and able to broadcast to a third party for central monitoring.

e. Impact Upon Future Operating Requirements (show initial and ongoing funding requirements by cost element, including position count, means of financing, fiscal year).

After the assessment and construction phases, there are no further funding requirements. Cost for maintenance of the system will be absorbed into the building's operating budget.

PROJECT INFORMATION AND JUSTIFICATION (use back if necessary):

a. Total Scope of Project.

Assess the corrosion damages and recommend remedial action for upgrades of the fire sprinkler, sewer, storm drain and air conditioning chilled water piping systems. This assessment will identify critical problem areas and provide comprehensive recommendations to address required upgrades including cost projections for the project.

b. Identification of Need and Evaluation of Existing Situation.

In the nearly 30 years since the structure was built, all of the indicated piping systems need various repairs due to rust deterioration. The harsh salt air elements have advanced the deterioration in this open air environment creating system failures. Each of these systems has its own inherent health and safety issues and should system failures occur, there will be a significant impact on the public and court operations of Hoapili Hale.

c. Alternatives Considered and Impact If Project Is Deferred.

Spot repairing has always been completed utilizing funding from the Second Circuit's operating budget. However, these piping systems have deteriorated to the point that minor repairs are no longer a viable solution. If any one or multiple systems develop a critical failure due to their current condition, the impact could be devastating in regards to health and safety of the public and employees, civil and other financial liability for the state, and daily Court operations.

d. Discuss What Improvements Will Take Place When Project Completed (including benefits to be derived and/or deficiencies this project intends to correct).

Once the assessment has been completed, remediation plans will be implemented which will likely include replacement of all impacted water systems including: Piping, hangers, faucets, valves, flow switches, sprinkler heads, insulation, diverter plates and painting/encapsulation of all exposed metal and PVC piping systems. This project will insure that all piping and related systems will be brought up to current code and minimize health, safety and operational issues associated with all four of these systems. Since all of these systems interconnect within the parking structure, the goal would be to combine all system upgrades into

e. Impact Upon Future Operating Requirements (show initial and ongoing funding requirements by cost element, including position count, means of financing, fiscal year).

This project is the assessment/remediation planning portion of the requested funding phase. After the proposed assessment and eventual project upgrade is completed, there will be no ongoing funding

PROJECT INFORMATION AND JUSTIFICATION (use back if necessary):

a. Total Scope of Project.

Work is a Design project to replace the undersized air conditioning (AC) air distribution system consisting of lined ductwork and obsolete modulating diffusers with new unlined sheetmetal ductwork including external insulation and properly operating variable volume control boxes tied to a new electronic energy management system. The system will be upgraded to include a new Building Automation System (BAS) computer, Web-based and tied into Hoapili Hale's BAS system.

b. Identification of Need and Evaluation of Existing Situation.

In 2011, 6 pieces of AC equipment comprising 3 systems were replaced. At the time of that project, replacement of the existing air distribution system with a new updated system was deferred. The condition of the existing distribution system prevents the new AC equipment from operating as engineered. The existing lined ductwork leaks and the modulating diffusers are broken, obsolete and unable to direct conditioned air to the various spaces as needed. The AC system cannot be balanced because of the ductwork leaks and because the existing thermostats and airflow adjustments are not working. Currently, total actual airflow is 56% of the engineered airflow and outside airflow is 47% of what it should be. The system effect appears to be derating fan performance. The air distribution system needs to be redesigned and upgraded to be more efficient and

c. Alternatives Considered and Impact If Project Is Deferred.

Significant hot and cold spots affect the comfort level and may affect the health of the staff and public. Substandard performance increases electrical power consumption and operating costs. Inability to balance the AC system may negatively impact the expected service lives of the equipment installed with the prior project, thereby increasing the life cycle costs of the AC system as currently configured.

d. Discuss What Improvements Will Take Place When Project Completed (including benefits to be derived and/or deficiencies this project intends to correct).

The air distribution systems including the ductwork and control boxes / diffusers will be re-engineered and replaced as specified in order to properly distribute air conditioning throughout the building. This will improve occupant comfort, may improve health effects, will decrease energy consumption and will buffer against future increases in energy costs.

e. Impact Upon Future Operating Requirements (show initial and ongoing funding requirements by cost element, including position count, means of financing, fiscal year).

Designs are intended to lead to project to improve the performance and efficiency of the AC system will help to reduce energy consumption and blunt rising energy costs.

PROJECT INFORMATION AND JUSTIFICATION (use back if necessary):

a. Total Scope of Project.

The scope of the project would include the investigation and identification of safety and infrastructure concerns regarding the current operation and physical condition of the cellblock areas in Ka`ahumanu Hale and designing system changes to address the deficiencies found.

b. Identification of Need and Evaluation of Existing Situation.

The existing system is the originally built system from the mid eighties. Most if not all of the hardware and control systems are obsolete and replacement parts are difficult to maintain to keep the system operating. There is a significant need to upgrade the system to provide for safety of Judges, staff and custodies.

c. Alternatives Considered and Impact If Project Is Deferred.

The only alternative would be to continue to operate with the current system. As hardware becomes harder to replace we would have to place some cells out of operation to repair others and begin to use non-manufacturer approved parts which would impact safety and security.

d. Discuss What Improvements Will Take Place When Project Completed (including benefits to be derived and/or deficiencies this project intends to correct).

The completion of the project will provide for a modern cellblock operation that would greatly enhance safety and security with the building.

e. Impact Upon Future Operating Requirements (show initial and ongoing funding requirements by cost element, including position count, means of financing, fiscal year).

The request is for $80,000 for planning and $220,000 for design. At this point other than the monetary needs there should be no impacts. The project will result in no continuing costs once construction is completed and may reduce the number fo staff needed in the cell block area depending on the degree of automation of the systems.
