

LATE TESTIMONY

To the Committee,

Thank you for the opportunity to testify. We oppose SB2964.

With all due respect, are you nuts? You want to target and eliminate the permitted and licensed vacation rentals? Isn't this totally backwards? If there is a problem with unlicensed rentals, why don't you address them, rather than the focus on the ones that are complying with the laws.

(We've been renting one of your targeted, legal, well kept places for over 25 years. We'd like to continue. But you should note that San Diego, Palm Springs, and the beautiful deserts of Arizona all also beckon.)

(When did Hawaii become anti-visitor?)

Please vote NO on SB2964.

Sincerely,

Dr. & Mrs. R.J. Shlegeris

Comments: Please do not pass this bill. This is a wonderful service that is being provided to visitors who want to share the beauty of Kailua. I believe there are 30 permitted vacation rentals that are licensed by the state. You could at very least leave those be. Please consider that this is very important to the financial growth of Kailua. Thank you. Margo Goldman
