The 101 year old historic Waianae Protestant Church (WPC) is located in the heart of Waianae along the Leeward Coast. The members have serve as cultural stewards for the property, cemetery, its hall and church for years. The leaders have encourage and continue to perpetuate the Hawaiian language by conducting services in Hawaiian and English. Serving as a gathering place for the community, members and leaders, they participate in preserving and practicing the Hawaiian language, culture and encourage partnership in the community.
2. The goals and objectives related to the request;
The general goals for the WPC restoration master plan are to engage in meaningful community partnerships, reduce reliance on government funding and increase capacity. The major objectives include 1) cultural preservation and restoration of the church, 2) implement long distance learning at the hall and 3) plan for a Hawaiian gardening that will support surrounding kupuna residents.
3. The public purpose and need to be served?
The public purpose of this request is to provide historical accomplishments of Native Hawaiians and the multiple functions and significance the building provided for the residents in Waianae especially those on Hawaiian Homestead lands. In 1847, the first building was constructed of wood and replaced in 1913 near the shark and rain heiau of Pu`u Kahea. Designed by an unknown architect and built by Native and non-Hawaiian builders who worked at the Waianae Sugar Mill, most of the building materials was transported to Hawaii from whaling ships.
4. Describe the target population to be served; and
The primary beneficiary of the funds will be the Waianae community selected to participate in the planning process.
