I. Background and Summary

This section shall clearly and concisely summarize and highlight the contents of the request in such a way as to provide the State Legislature with a broad understanding of the request. Please include the following:

1. A brief description of the applicant's background:

The Oahu Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (Oahu SPCA) was founded in 2009. Its mission is: Every healthy, treatable animal will find a forever home.

The Oahu SPCA is the largest animal welfare organization in Hawaii with a no-kill philosophy, dedicated to reducing the number of homeless animals and euthanasia. In July 2009, 432 animals in Waianae were relinquished after their owner passed away. The organization rescued all 432 animals in 48 hours, which marked the largest animal rescue in the history of Hawaii.

The Oahu SPCA takes care of about 250 animals per day or a total of more than 2,000 animals each year. The organization rescues animals, rehabilitates (all necessary procedures and surgeries), adopts them to loving homes, and reunites pets with their owners.

The organization retrieves feral animals, shelters rescued animals, and fosters companion animals and abandoned pets. It offers affordable adoption, low cost sterilization, and veterinary services to the public. Oahu SPCA provides services to people as well: pet ownership training and education, training of students and volunteers in rehabilitation and enrichment – from socializing to dog walking, to understanding and meeting the needs of animals, and preparing them for adoption. It offers community services, and apprenticeships for Veterinarians and Veterinary Technician, and participates in the First to Work program.

2. The goals and objectives related to the request:

The goal of the project is to increase sterilization and veterinary services to the community. Currently, the Oahu SPCA provides a variety of services to more than 6,680 animals per year. The requested $265,968 will support services to an additional 5,000 animals in FY17.

3. The public purpose and need to be served:

Animal overpopulation is a human problem with significant human costs, which can only be addressed through human actions. Overpopulation is a result of allowing animals to reproduce with little chance to find homes for the offspring and pets being abandoned by owners, who can no longer keep, want or afford their animals.

Abandoned animals in the wild create health, traffic and environmental hazards. Abandoned or lost animals brought to a shelter may not be placed in a home and instead are at risk of being euthanized. Shelters do their best to place animals in loving homes, but the number of homeless animals far exceeds the number of willing adopters. The Oahu SPCA was founded with a no kill philosophy and we do not believe in euthanasia as a solution to this problem.

In Hawaii, millions of dollars are spent annually to shelter and care for stray, abandoned and unwanted pets. Human health is threatened by the danger of transmittable diseases (including rabies), animal bites and attacks. Property may be damaged and livestock killed when pets roam in search of food. Animal waste is proving to be a serious environment hazard.

Sterilization is the key to eliminating animal overpopulation, reducing the number of homeless animals and saving lives. It controls fertility, leading to decreased birth rates and fewer unwanted animals; fewer unwanted animals results in lower intake at shelters and, ultimately, less euthanasia. The one-time cost of spaying or neutering is far lower than the expense involved in rescuing strays, feeding and housing abandoned animals, and euthanizing those for whom homes cannot be found.

Escalating veterinary costs is the reason most often cited by owners who choose not to sterilize their pets. However, one unaltered female dog, her mate, and their offspring can produce up to 67,000 dogs in only 6 years; and one unaltered female cat, her mate and all of their offspring can produce 370,092 in just 7 years. This creates an immense burden on the local government and animal organizations to handle so many animals. Low-cost or free spay and neuter is the only way to reach these segments of the animal population.

With the funded grant, the Oahu SPCA can provide health and sterilization services to additional 5,000 animals. Providing the education for our community and affordable veterinary care prevents the reproduction of unwanted animals and the numbers of abandoned animals due to the escalating cost of veterinary services. If left unattended, these animals are capable of reproducing at exponential rates that can quickly overwhelm animal welfare agencies. Preventing animal overpopulation will save money for the local government and non-profits, and protect public health and the environment. This grant funding will optimize and develop our new veterinary clinic that will insure our sustainability, continued success and contribute to the development of a more responsible community.

4. Describe the target population to be served; and

The organization provides the lowest cost veterinary services to the public. 30% of our clients are low-income, and 7% are homeless. The goal is to provide Sterilization and Wellness Clinic services to as many animals and families as possible in order to eliminate animal overpopulation and abandonment due to high costs of veterinary services.

During the grant period, the organization will provide services to 11,400 families and animals on Oahu.

5. Describe the geographic coverage:

The Oahu SPCA serves the island of Oahu, as well as the neighbor islands. This includes intake and adoption of the overflow of animals from the Hawaiian Humane Society, Maui Humane, and stray dog rescues from Kauai and the Big Island. The Oahu SPCA has a weekend outreach program at 6 Petco locations on Oahu where we give wellness exams, inoculations and microchips to up to 150 pets each weekend. The 7th location will be added in the spring of 2016. The organization is conducting monthly Petco outreach and clinics in Lihue, and is slated to add Kona, Hilo, and Kahului by the end of 2016.

II. Service Summary and Outcomes

The Service Summary shall include a detailed discussion of the applicant's approach to the request. The applicant shall clearly and concisely specify the results, outcomes, and measures of effectiveness from this request. The applicant shall:

1. Describe the scope of work, tasks and responsibilities;

Scope of work:

In the grant period, the Oahu SPCA will intensify efforts to capture feral and abandoned pets. In FY17, the Oahu SPCA will take in 3,600 animals. These animals will receive all necessary surgeries including sterilization, medical care, behavioral rehabilitation and shelter.

Tasks:

Funds from this State GIA request will allow us to do the following:

1. Provide sterilization for feral animals and abandoned pets including mass trapping and sterilization of feral dog and cat colonies.
2. Provide free or low-cost veterinary services for low-income and homeless families, or reduced-fee spay/neuter and veterinary care for the public.
3. Rehabilitate stray or abandoned dogs and cats and prepare them for adoption.
4. Shelter and feed animals until they are adopted, provide all needed medical and behavioral treatment, conduct all necessary surgeries, orthopedic, stem cell and eye corrective surgeries, tumor removal, micro-chipping and inoculations.
5. Coordinate comprehensive foster care to give animals a second chance at adoption.
6. Place animals into permanent homes.

Responsibilities:

The President will be responsible for providing overall management of the grant project – oversight of the staff, financial management, and reporting of the grant.

The staff, Veterinarians, Veterinarian Technicians, and Shelter support staff will provide medical, rehabilitation, sterilization, wellness, and adoptions services. Volunteers will assist with rehabilitation and socialization of animals and provide needed services to the shelter at no cost.

2. Provide a projected annual timeline for accomplishing the results or outcomes of the service;

The Oahu SPCA proposes the following timelines:

Month 1

- A second Veterinarian, a Veterinary Technician, and a Shelter Manager to support animal, rehabilitation and adoption services will be hired and trained.
- All equipment needed to provide procedures and surgeries will be purchased and installed.
- Supplies needed to support the animals, including animal enclosures, food, medical and surgical supplies will be purchased monthly as needed.

Months 2-12

- The shelter will increase its intake of stray animals and abandoned animals.
- The veterinary team will provide sterilization and rehabilitation services.
- Volunteers and staff will provide support and education for families and their animals.
- Adoption Coordinator will place animals into foster homes or adoption to new homes.

3. Describe its quality assurance and evaluation plans for the request. Specify how the applicant plans to monitor, evaluate, and improve their results; and Quantitative and qualitative research methodology is used to evaluate the Oahu SPCA's activities.

The organization uses Shelter Buddy® Software, which was developed specifically for animal welfare and care organizations. Shelter Buddy features streamlined, centralized records for each animal, recording everything from vet treatment received or due and their physical whereabouts in the shelter.

The Oahu SPCA tracks the number of animals sterilized by geographic location, number of animals vaccinated, number of animals rescued, rehabilitated, adopted, surrendered, returned to owners; and placed into foster care. The organization also tracks the number of foster care families participating, the number of animal care volunteers, the number of volunteers trained in specialized animal care areas such as dog handling or cat socialization, and the number of employment opportunities provided. This data is collected to analyze the cost effectiveness of programs and their impact.

The Oahu SPCA surveys customers, partners, and staff on their level of satisfaction. From the content of information dissemination and impact on awareness and belief systems, to views of the competency of the organization and its staff and the level of customer service offered. This feedback is important to continuous quality improvement.

3. List the measure(s) of effectiveness that will be reported to the State agency through which grant funds are appropriated (the expending agency). The measure(s) will provide a standard and objective way for the State to assess the program's achievement or accomplishment. Please note that if the level of appropriation differs from the amount included in this application that the measure(s) of effectiveness will need to be updated and transmitted to the expending agency.

The Oahu SPCA uses the following measures of effectiveness:

- Number of rescued animals: 3,600
- Number of rehabilitated animals, including all necessary surgeries, sterilizations, inoculations and micro chipping: 11,400
- Number of animals adopted or placed into foster homes: 3,400
