
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO THE CHILD PROTECTIVE ACT.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The legislature finds that the State's best
2 practice policies should prioritize the immediate and continued
3 safety and stability of foster care children, the State's most 4 vulnerable keiki, when making decisions regarding the time
5 frame, criteria, and justification for family placement and 6 reunification. While biological family bonds are respected and 7 the goals of the department of human services, child protective 8 services, and parents are to keep biological families intact,
9 placement with the biological family is not always in the best
10 interest of the foster care child, particularly in an 11 "aggravated circumstances" case that involves a history of 12 neglect, abandonment, physical abuse, drug use, or sexual abuse, 13 each circumstance compounded by unstable housing. The ultimate 14 concern must be for the short- and long-term care, safety, and 15 security of the foster care child.

16 The legislature further finds that judges and guardians ad
17 litem have minimal direction pertaining to cases involving

1 "aggravated circumstances". Given the instances of death, re-
2 abuse, continued abandonment, neglect, drug use, sex abuse, and 3 human trafficking, it is necessary to clarify and specify the 4 conditions for which biological families may no longer be 5 considered a safe placement for a child, and the assessment of 6 the short- and long-term safety and security of a child based on 7 family history and case details demands a declaration of 8 "aggravated circumstances" on behalf of a child.

9 The purpose of this Act is to recognize many of the 10 variables associated with the parents of children entering 11 foster care by specifying additional circumstances where a 12 biological family shall be considered an unsafe placement by 13 expanding the definition of "aggravated circumstances" as used
14 in chapter 587A, Hawaii Revised Statutes, the Child Protective 15 Act, to better support judges and guardians ad litem as they 16 make decisions regarding the care of foster children.

17 SECTION 2. Section 587A-4, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 18 amended by amending the definition of "aggravated circumstances"
19 to read as follows:

20 "Aggravated circumstances" means that:

H.B. NO. 1321

- 1 (1) The parent has murdered, or has solicited, aided,
2 abettted, attempted, or conspired to commit the murder
3 or voluntary manslaughter of, another child of the 4 parent;

16 child of the parent; [eæ]
- 17 (7) The parent is required to register with a sex offender
18 registry under section 113(a) of the Adam Walsh Child 19 Protection and Safety Act of 2006, title 42 United 20 States Code section 16913(a) [-];

H.B. NO. 1321

- 1 (8) The parent has provided unstable housing and is a 2 repeat offender of crimes related to drug use or 3 distribution, gang activity, theft, arson, or 4 extortion;
- 5 (9) The parent has provided unstable housing and has been 6 incarcerated more than once, resulting in the child's 7 repeated placement in foster care;
- 8 (10) The parent has provided unstable housing and placed 9 the child or a sibling of the child in foster care
10 more than once;
- 11 (11) The parent has provided unstable housing and 12 previously had parental rights voluntarily or 13 involuntarily terminated;
- 14 (12) The parent has failed to complete or comply with the 15 pre-permanency plan or permanency plan requirements
16 more than once, with consideration of the required
17 timelines;
- 18 (13) The parent has physically abused a child as witnessed,
19 corroborated, or assessed by a third party, clinic,
20 hospital, or other child assessment professional; or

H.B. NO. 1321

1 (14) The parent has engaged in human trafficking of the 2 child or another child of the parent or has solicited,
 3 aided, abetted, attempted, or conspired to engage in 4 human trafficking of the child or another child of the 5 parent."

6 SECTION 4. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed
 7 and stricken. New statutory material is underscored.

8 SECTION 5. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.
