
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO CORPORATIONS.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. Hawaii's corporate reporting requirements serve
2 important interests: providing the shareholders with 3 information, deterring actual corruption and avoiding any 4 appearance thereof, and gathering the data necessary to enforce
5 more substantive electioneering restrictions.

6 The government has as interest in ensuring that 7 shareholders are informed of corporate affairs. Corporate
8 reporting obligations provide information to the shareholders 9 about who is speaking - information that "is vital to the 10 efficient functioning of the marketplace of ideas, and thus to 11 advancing the democratic objectives underlying the First 12 Amendment." McCutcheon v. Federal Election Comm'n, 134 S. Ct.
13 1434, 1459-60 (2014). This transparency enables the 14 shareholders to make informed decisions. Providing these 15 reports directly to the shareholders ensures that shareholders
16 will be informed of corporate affairs. Shareholders may also 17 share information with the electorate at large.

1 Hawaii's corporate reporting requirements deter actual 2 corruption and avoid the appearance of corruption by exposing
3 the source of contributions and expenditures. Providing reports
4 to shareholders is an important step in deterring actual 5 corruption by corporations attempting to circumvent reporting
6 and disclosure requirements. Shareholder may use this 7 information to file derivative suits.

8 Corporate reporting requirements provide a means of 9 detecting violations of valid contribution limitations and 10 preventing circumvention of Hawaii's campaign spending
11 limitations, including rules that bar contributions by foreign 12 corporations. Providing reports to shareholders provides 13 additional scrutiny of compliance with reporting and disclosure
14 requirements. Shareholders have a unique interest in analyzing 15 and scrutinizing corporate expenditures.

16 In order to make the reporting requirement of this Act less
17 burdensome on the corporation, the corporation may use other 18 reports that contain the pertinent information that is related
19 to independent expenditures, contributions to noncandidate
20 committees, and contributions to candidate committees rather 21 than requiring the corporation to prepare a separate report with

1 the same information. For example, corporations may provide 2 their shareholders with copies of the reports filed with the 3 campaign spending commission. Sections 11-302, and 11-321,
 4 Hawaii Revised Statutes, require corporations that make 5 contributions or expenditures of over $1,000 in an election
 6 period to register as a noncandidate committee. Consequently,
 7 the information this Act seeks to make available to the 8 shareholders may already be available elsewhere and may be used
 9 to partially satisfy reporting requirements under this Act.

10 SECTION 2. Chapter 414, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is 11 amended by adding a new section to be appropriately designated 12 and to read as follows:

13 "§414- Report to shareholders. (a) All domestic and 14 foreign corporations authorized to transact business in this 15 State that make more than $1,000 of independent expenditures and 16 contributions in a year shall disclose to their shareholders in 17 an annual report the corporation's independent expenditures and 18 contributions to any candidate committee or noncandidate
 19 committee. The annual report shall conform to the requirements
 20 of subsection (b) and the resulting report shall be delivered to

1 shareholders at the same time that the corporation's annual 2 report is filed pursuant to section 414-472.

3 (b) The foreign or domestic corporation may elect to 4 report aggregate amounts. The report shall include separate 5 aggregate totals for independent expenditures, contributions to 6 noncandidate committees, and contributions to candidate
7 committees. For each separate aggregate total, the reports
8 shall include an identification of the specific monetary or 9 nonmonetary benefit that accrued to the domestic or foreign 10 corporation as a direct result of independent expenditures, 11 contributions to noncandidate committees, and contributions to 12 candidate committees; provided that if the specific monetary or 13 nonmonetary benefit to the corporation is zero or 14 unidentifiable, the domestic or foreign corporation shall 15 specify that the monetary or nonmonetary benefit to the domestic 16 or foreign corporation is zero or unidentifiable. Provided that 17 the corporation may fulfill the requirements of this subsection
18 by delivering to the shareholders other reports that disclose
19 the required information in more detail.

20 (c) For the purposes of this section:

1 "Contribution" shall have the same meaning as in section
2 11-302.

3 "Independent expenditure" shall have the same meaning as in 4 section 11-302."

5 SECTION 3. New statutory material is underscored.

6 SECTION 4. This Act shall take effect upon its approval.

Report Title:

Corporation Reports; Independent Campaign Expenditures and Political Contributions
