
A BILL FOR AN ACT

RELATING TO KAHO‘OLAWE ISLAND RESERVE.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE STATE OF HAWAII:

1 SECTION 1. The Hawaii supreme court, in Carlisle v. One
2 (1) Boat, overturned an intermediate court of appeals decision
3 that allowed non-natural resource forfeiture in cases of natural
4 resource destruction or degradation. According to the decision,
5 the penalty provisions for violations of laws or administrative 6 rules relating to resource protection, which would include those
7 of the Kaho‘olawe island reserve commission, must specifically
8 authorize forfeiture.

9 The purpose of this Act is to clarify that any equipment,
10 article, instrument, aircraft, vehicle, vessel, business record,
11 or natural resource used or taken in violation of laws or rules
12 applicable to the Kaho‘olawe island reserve may be seized and 13 subject to forfeiture pursuant to section 199-7 and chapter
14 712A, Hawaii Revised Statutes, if the offense occurs within one
15 nautical mile of the shoreline of Kaho‘olawe island, subject to 16 rules adopted by the department.

1 SECTION 2. Section 6K-8, Hawaii Revised Statutes, is
2 amended to read as follows:

3 "§6K-8 Penalty[-]; offenses subject to forfeiture. (a)

4 Any person who violates any of the laws or rules applicable to 5 the island reserve shall be guilty of a petty misdemeanor and 6 shall be fined not more than $1,000 or imprisoned not more than 7 thirty days, or both, for each offense. Each day of each
8 violation shall be deemed a separate offense.

9 (b) Property or natural resources used or taken in 10 violation of this chapter or rules adopted by the department or 11 the commission may be subject to seizure, disposal, and 12 forfeiture in accordance with section 199-7 and the procedures
13 under chapter 712A; provided that the offense occurs within the 14 fast lands of the reserve or by persons or on vessels located in 15 the area extending seaward one nautical mile of the shoreline of 16 Kaho'olawe island.

17 (c) The department shall adopt rules, pursuant to chapter
18 91, to effectuate the purposes of this section."

19 SECTION 3. This Act does not affect rights and duties that 20 matured, penalties that were incurred, and proceedings that were 21 begun before its effective date.

1 SECTION 4. Statutory material to be repealed is bracketed
2 and stricken. New statutory material is underscored.

3 SECTION 5. This Act shall take effect on July 1, 2050.

Report Title:

Kaho'olawe Island Reserve; Forfeiture; Seizure; Disposal

Description:

Clarifies that property or natural resources used or taken in violation of laws or rules pertaining to Kaho'olawe island may be subject to seizure, disposal, and forfeiture in accordance with existing law if the offense occurs within the fast lands of the reserve or by persons or on vessels located in the area extending seaward one nautical mile of the shoreline of Kaho'olawe island. Takes effect on 7/1/2050. (SD1)
