SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTION

REQUESTING THE LEGISLATIVE REFERENCE BUREAU TO CONDUCT A SURVEY
AND EVALUATION OF ARTIST RELOCATION PROGRAMS AND THEIR POTENTIAL FOR CREATION IN THE STATE OF HAWAII.

1 WHEREAS, many communities have discovered that often the 2 greatest natural resource a community has are the artists and 3 crafts persons who are part of the creative industries sector of 4 the economy; and

5
6 WHEREAS, artists and craft persons are living resources
7 that are always renewable, and even importable, and communities
8 may build an entire economic sector around artists, craft 9 persons, performing artists, writers, and the culture they 10 create; and

11
12 WHEREAS, in 2000 the City of Paducah, located at the 13 confluence of the Tennessee and Ohio rivers in western Kentucky, 14 started an "artist relocation program" that has become a 15 national model for using the arts for economic development and 16 fostered an environment where artists and the arts could 17 flourish; and

18
19 WHEREAS, the goals of the program were to revitalize one of 20 Paducah's most historic neighborhoods through the arts, 21 accomplished by the city's offering properties at little cost in 22 return for agreement with various conditions of renovation and 23 basing entrepreneurial activities in the arts at the properties
24 located in the model art district community--a place to create, 25 live, and work; and

26
27 WHEREAS, private-public partnering was a critical element
28 in the success of the Paducah artist relocation program, which 29 involved innovative financing arrangements with community
30 partner banks for the artists/residents, and public incentives
31 including low cost property sales and zoning accommodations
32 through the city planning department; and

WHEREAS, Paducah's artist relocation program has created a breeding ground for creative concepts as neighbors create synergies that optimize their potential, and the artists/entrepreneurs impact the city's local cultural industries and serve as gateways to national and international markets; now, therefore,

BE IT RESOLVED by the Senate of the Twenty-eighth Legislature of the State of Hawaii, Regular Session of 2016, the House of Representatives concurring, that the Legislative Reference Bureau is requested to conduct a survey and evaluation of artist relocation programs and the potential for creation of such a program in the State of Hawaii; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that the Legislative Reference Bureau is requested to submit a report of its findings and recommendations, including any proposed legislation, to the Legislature no later than twenty days prior to the convening of the Regular Session of 2017; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED that a certified copy of this Concurrent Resolution be transmitted to the Director of the Legislative Reference Bureau.
