

Emmet White, President & CEO

Emmet White has been Arcadia's President and Chief Executive Officer for 20 years and today also serves as the President and Chief Executive Officer for the seven companies in the Arcadia family, which include 15 Craigside, Hawaii's newest continuing care retirement community, and Arcadia At Home, a senior living concept which enables a senior to live at home, while also participating in many of the types of benefits available to residents at Arcadia and 15 Craigside. Prior to Arcadia, he practiced law for 23 years and was a court appointed arbitrator under Hawaii's Court Annexed Arbitration Program. He is also a Nursing Home and Assisted Living Administrator. Emmet received his Bachelor of Arts from Lafayette College and his Juris Doctor from the College of William & Mary. He has served Central Union as a Moderator, Trustee and Deacon, and has been the Chair of the Hawaii Long Term Care Association. He served as a Chair for the Arcadia Retirement Residence Board prior to his employment as CEO. He also serves on the Statewide Health Coordinating Council for the State Health Planning and Development Agency, the Oahu Workforce Investment Board, and the Public Policy Congress for Leading Age. A retired Army Reserve Colonel, he is an Ombudsman for the Department of Defense's Employer Support of the Guard and Reserve Program.
