

Paul F. Morgan, AIA

Principal: Suzuki/Morgan Architects, Ltd., Honolulu, HI

Education: Master of Architecture--University of Washington, [REDACTED]
ABS Drafting Technology--Leeward CC, [REDACTED]
Bachelor of Arts (Art History)--Amherst College, [REDACTED]
High School--Hawaii Preparatory Academy, [REDACTED]

Architectural Registration: Washington [REDACTED]
Hawaii [REDACTED]

Professional Experience:

- 1991-present Principal, Suzuki/Morgan Architects, Ltd., Honolulu, HI, started as a local branch of Suzuki Associates Architects of Seattle, handling jobs in Hawaii and in Pacific (military work in Philippines and Guam) under Robert Suzuki of Seattle, Majority Principal. Currently the firm is independent of the Seattle organization following the retirement of Mr. Suzuki.
- Selected Jobs: Science Building at La Pietra/Hawaii School for Girls-Honolulu; Student Center & Covered Tennis Facility at Hawaii Preparatory Academy—Kamuela, HI; Restoration of Historic Nanbu Hotel—Kapaau, HI; Historic Structures Report for Ainahou Ranch, Hawaii Volcano Nat'l Park; Adaptation of Bldg 117 Ph1 (Albert Kahn 1942 Bldg) at Kalaeloa for Hawaii Army National Guard.
- 1988-1990 Project Architect, Church-Suzuki Architects, Ltd., Honolulu, HI
Project Architect, Job Captain for projects in Hawaii. Including DOE school renovations, residential projects and military projects in Hawaii, the Philippines and Guam.
- 1985-1988 Project Architect, Franklin Gray & Assoc., Honolulu, HI
Project Architect for renovation/restoration of old Judiciary Building (Aliiolani Hale) Phase II. Responsible for putting drawings and specifications together and monitoring construction.
- 1983-1984 Architect, Peter Hsi & Assoc., Honolulu, HI
Job Captain for various jobs in Honolulu, including projects at Honolulu Community College and Pearl Harbor Historic Shipyard Building 1.
- 1980-1982 Intern Architect/Draftsman for ARC Architects in Seattle, WA.
Drafted construction plans for various projects, primarily hospitals.
- 1976-1983 Candidate in Master of Architecture Program @ University of Washington. Masters Thesis on the Bond Historic Mission District in Kapaau, HI.
- 1974-1976 Drafter for Paul S. Osumi Architects—drafted construction plans for various project, primarily residential and dental offices working with Paul Osumi AIA.

Associated Professional Experience:

Lecturer, Elder Hostel Program, on Architectural History of Hawai'i-Post Contact
Lecturer at Honolulu Community College's Drafting Technology Program

Community Activities:

KCAA Preschools, Board Member
Oahu Cemetery, Board Member
Atherton Family Foundation, Director

Writings

“Pili to Precast—Post-contact Masonry & Concrete Construction in Hawaii”
in Hawaii Pacific Architecture Magazine, October 1996

Selected Projects:

Historic Preservation:

Ali'iolani Hale Renovation (Old Judiciary Bldg)—renovate Supreme Courtroom &
create Judiciary Museum rooms and Historic Courtroom
Nanbu Hotel, Kohala
Bond Estate, Kohala--Survey and Preservation Plan
Shangrila (Doris Duke Estate)--Existing Condition Survey & Report

Art & Community Centers:

Volcano Art Center—New facilities in Volcano Village
Moloka'i Museum and Cultural Center

Schools:

Volcano Charter School—renovate and permit buildings for school occupancy
Hawaii Preparatory Academy—Student Center, Dorm Renovations, Science Room renovations, Tennis Facility, Library renovation, Student Pavilion & others.
La Pietra-Hawaii School for Girls—New Science Center to match historic buildings
Parker School—New Building for grades K-5.

Churches:

Kauaha'ao Church in Ka'u—Replace demolished church
St. Clement--Feasibility Study and Parish House Renovation
Lanai Union Church-schematic design for renovation of old Japanese School Bldg

Other Non-Profits:

Hawaii Railway Society—Long Range Plan and Trainshed
Blood Bank of Hawaii-various renovations to Lab, Blood Donor Room & Building

Dept. of Defense:

Aeromedical Clinic, Andersen AFB, Guam
Military Training Center, Addition and Renovation of Bldg 117 for Hawaii Army
National Guard,

PERSONAL NOTES

Paul was born in Honolulu and raised on sugar plantations in Kahuku, Oahu and Kalaheo, Kauai. He attended Kahuku School through 6th grade and graduated from Hawaii Preparatory Academy on the Big Island. He attended Amherst College in Massachusetts where he majored in Art History. He was drafted into the US Army and spent a tour in Vietnam as an infantry radioman with the 25th Division. Upon being released from the service he attended Leeward Community College to learn architectural drafting. After working as a draftsman for a couple years he attended the University of Washington in Seattle to obtain a degree in Architecture. He returned to the Islands in 1983 and has been a Principal in Suzuki/Morgan Architects since 1991. Paul is married to Barb Young Morgan and has 3 children and 3 grandchildren.

Outside interests: watercolor painting, reading, jogging, bicycling. Special interests are world history, Hawaiian History, Hawaiian language, History of Architecture.

