

Brief Curriculum Vitae for R. Scott Daniels, PhD

Professional Experience

Program Specialist V – June 2015 to present

Performance Improvement/Flex Coordinator – September 2005 to May 2015

Interim Chief – September 2005 to September 2008

Office of Primary Care and Rural Health, Hawaii State Department of Health

Networking Consultant – May 2005 to September 2005

Hawaii State Office of Rural Health, Hawaii State Department of Health

Senior Analyst – May 2000 to May 2005

Hawaii Health Information Corporation

Lecturer—August 1997 to May 2000

Public Administration Program, University of Hawai‘i at Manoa

Community Development Consultant – June 1999 to October 1999

Hawaii Community Services Council

Community Health Consultant – August 1998 to February 1999

Hawaii Health Information Corporation

Related Service

National Organization of State Offices of Rural Health (NOSORH) President-Elect – January 2015 to present

NOSORH Executive Committee – January 2013 to present

Technical Assistance Service Center Advisory Board – November 2014 to present

National Center for Rural Health Works Advisory Board – October 2014 to present

Pacific Basin Telehealth Resource Center Advisory Board – September 2012 to present

Hawaii Trauma Advisory Committee – May 2010 to present

Member NOSORH Flex & Policy Committees – September 2005 to present

NOSORH Board Secretary – January 2013 to December 2014

Co-chair NOSORH Flex Committee – January 2007 to December 2013

NOSORH Region D Representative – January 2012 to December 2013

January 2007 to December 2009

Member NOSORH HIT – September 2005 to December 2010

Member National Rural Health Association’s Minority & Multicultural Health Committee – July 2007 to December 2010

Hawaii State Rural Health Association Board Member – October 2005 to October 2009

Education

University of Hawai‘i at Manoa

Doctor of Philosophy, Political Science, ■■■■

Master of Arts, Political Science, ■■■■

University of Montana
Bachelor of Arts, Political Science, ■■■■

Publications

“‘Poor’ Statistical Accounting: Rewriting the Boundaries of Social Science and Politics in Cyberspace” with Sanford F. Schram in Sanford Schram Contracting America (New York: New York University Press, 2000)

“‘It’s Not Just Naked Women:’ Controlling Transgressive Identities in Cyberspace” in Sanford F. Schram and Philip T. Neisser, eds., Tales of the State: Readings on the Legendary Character of Public Policy (Lanham, MD: Rowman & Littlefield, 1997)

“Explaining General Assistance Roll Growth in Hawai‘i: A Policy Report” with Sanford F. Schram and Lawrence Nitz (Honolulu: University of Hawai‘i, School of Social Work, 1996)