Hi'ilei (Angela) Kawelo Executive Director Paepae o He'eia, He'eia Fishpond www.paepaeoheeia.org
office: 236-6178 fax:234-1999)

(1) Why do you wish to be a member of the Natural Area Reserves System Commission?

I have grown up, been around, and exposed to Hawai'i's environment and the out of doors my entire life. As a native Hawaiian, I grew up and continue to spend much of my time accessing our forests, shorelines and ocean, interacting, gathering and harvesting as I was taught by my 'ohana. In my current profession, and one that I've spent the last 16 years of my life devoted to, as steward of He'eia Fishpond and Executive Director of the non-profit that cares for it, Paepae o He'eia, I believe I can offer a unique perspective to the way we view and care for our Natural Area Reserves, one that understands the importance and fragility of these systems but yet values the connections between people and place.

(2) How do you perceive the role and responsibilities of a member of the Natural Area Reserves System Commission?

Frankly, I have no idea what to expect! I've served on one other State Board/Commission and that was the Kane'ohe Bay Regional Council. I suspect my role and responsibilities are to be to be a good listener and make informed decisions that will best serve our Natural Area Reserves.

(3) Given your understanding of the role and responsibilities of a member of the Natural Area Reserves System Commission, why do you believe that you are qualified for the position? Please include a brief statement of your skills, expertise, or knowledge that would aid in your decision-making ability as a member of the Natural Area Reserves System Commission.

I am a good listener and would bring an unbiased perspective to the Commission.

(4) What do you hope to accomplish during your term of service?

I have no agenda nor any ambitions other than to serve and offer my perspectives. As a commissioner, I would welcome the opportunity to learn more in depth about each and every NAR.

(5) Name three qualities that best describe you and that would make you stand out. How would these qualities benefit the Natural Area Reserves System Commission?

I am passionate, culturally-grounded and live by this saying "huli ka lima i lalo, ma'ona ka 'opu." "Huli ka lima i lalo, ma'ona ka 'opu" speaks to my style of learning and teaching. I haven't much use for talk. Let's rather walk the talk!!!! When our hands are turned to the soil, our stomachs are full. My actions speak for themselves. I am very serious about this place we call home, Hawai'i. Our people, our practices, our culture and their preservation and perpetuation are all dependent on the health and vitality of our native ecosystems.

- (6) Name one previous experience that would make you stand out. How would this benefit the Natural Area Reserves System Commission?

I remember, quite a while ago hiking Poamoho. At the time it was not a Natural Area Reserve. I remember once we reached the summit, we were on a mission to find Kahuli. Almost every plant whose leaves we checked and overturned, there would be a Kahuli. Ko'olau Kahuli are beautiful in their greens, whites and yellows. Now you can't see that anymore. Poamoho is now a NAR. In my lifetime I've seen this and I've seen this in many other areas and environs from mauka to makai; it's why I do what I do. I want Hawai'i, in all her glory to be here for generations to come.

- (7) Can you foresee any possible conflicts of interests that could arise during your service on the Natural Area Reserves System Commission? How would you overcome any possible conflicts of interest?

No

Comments: I strongly support the nomination of Angela Hi'ilei Kawelo to continue her appointment on the Natural Area Reserves System Commission. I have known Hi'ilei for several years since our studies at the University of Hawaii at Manoa. Her leadership and profound love for Hawai'i is demonstrated in her work at Paepae o He'eia. Her work at He'eia fishpond, one of the largest fishponds in Hawai'i and the rehabilitation of the fishpond to feed the community is an indicator of her pa'ahana, hard work and passion to serve her community. It is her diligence, passion and Aloha 'Aina that she is a prime candidate to serve the people of Hawai'i as a member of the NARS commission. Respectfully submitted, Kanoe Sukanuma-Wilson

Comments: Aloha Senators Gabbard and Nishihara and members of the Senate Committee on Water, Land and Agriculture, I submit this testimony in super strong if not overwhelming support of my friend Ms. Angela Hi'ilei Kawelo's nomination to the NARS Commission (both GM 510 and 511). Ms. Kawelo has been a good friend of mine and I will also disclose serves on the board of an organization I work for. She has been of good service to my work and has been a loyal and supportive friend for some time. Ms. Kawelo also comes from a strong line of dedicated malama 'aina people with roots in Kahalu'u, O'ahu with a shared vision for a view on conservation that includes people and actual ecosystems and landscapes (not just delineated jurisdictional zones) from roof of our heavens to the bottom of our very oceans. Ms. Kawelo is also in the word of my grandfather one smaht buggah with a big heart. She is conscientious of how special places like our NARS plays into a bigger picture and a broader time horizon behind and before us and will bring this vision in spades on her service to our state. And as I have testified on other before her: I think our state needs to start putting more smaht buggahs with big hearts on commissions that deal with aspects of our community that touch upon both. Aloha nui. Kevin Chang
