State Capitol, Conference Room 229

Chair Nishihara, Vice Chair Espero, and Members of the Committee:

The Department of Public Safety (PSD) supports the nominations of Jon Matsuo and Jennifer Dotson to the Correctional Industries Advisory Committee, for terms to expire June 30, 2017 and June 30, 2019, respectively. Mr. Matsuo and Ms. Dotson have tremendous knowledge and experience in executive coaching and leadership in both the private and public sectors, and are passionate about working with underserved populations. We are confident that both individuals will be outstanding, dynamic additions to the Advisory Committee.

Thank you for the opportunity to present this testimony.

Submitting for consideration and confirmation to the Correctional Industries
Advisory Committee, Gubernatorial Nominee, JON MATSUO, for a term to expire 06-30-2017.

Senate Committee on Public Safety and Intergovernmental and Military Affairs

The Department of Transportation (DOT) strongly supports Jon Matsuo's nomination to the Correctional Industries Advisory Committee.

Jon received his BS in Business Administration from Lewis and Clark College. Over the course of his career, Jon has demonstrated that he possesses the skills, expertise, and passion that will make him an invaluable member of the Advisory Committee. As he has demonstrated while working at DOT he'll address the variety of challenges and issues that will come up with balance, competence, and integrity.

Beyond his excellent credentials I have somewhat of a distinctive working relationship with Jon as he was one of the first people I met when I was appointed the Deputy Director of the Airports Division in 2011. Although Jon was also new at the time there were some management issues that he assisted me with, which mitigated or avoided a worsening situation. He was diligent, deliberate, rigorous, and very focused. With his background as a management consultant and realizing the importance of creating unity within the dispersed Airports Division offices, he developed a newsletter to keep employees abreast of what our plans and accomplishments were. I appreciated his involvement with the many complex legislative matters involving the Airports Division and counted on him for a rational response to the situations we were faced with. I have appreciated his contributions as the Airports Division's management analyst, and recommend his confirmation to the Correctional Industries Advisory Committee.

Thank you for the opportunity to provide testimony.

Comments: Aloha, I am in strong support of the confirmation of Mr. Jon Matsuo to the Correctional Industries Advisory Board. Because of his extensive work in the community (including volunteering as mentor and counselor at the local prisons), church and businesses that he's worked at, Mr. Matsuo will be a very valuable member and provide some very good insights and sound decision making to the Board.
