Comments: As I don't know so much about what the intentions are of this office in the long run, I will not say yes or no. I do question the amount of staff and other expenses in wondering how they will be monitored and held accountable. Early learning is a great thing but equitable learning and funding is important and we have programs and processes in place already so why we have another "office" I am not clear. Thank you.

Please note that testimony submitted less than 24 hours prior to the hearing, improperly identified, or directed to the incorrect office, may not be posted online or distributed to the committee prior to the convening of the public hearing.
