TO THE HOUSE COMMITTEE ON

THE TWENTY-EIGHTH LEGISLATURE
REGULAR SESSION OF 2016

MONDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2016
2:05 p.m.

TESTIMONY ON H.B. NO. 2319
RELATING TO MONEY TRANSMITTERS

TO THE HONORABLE ANGUS L.K. MCKELVEY, CHAIR, AND MEMBERS OF THE COMMITTEE:

My name is Iris Ikeda, Commissioner of Financial Institutions ("Commissioner"), testifying on behalf of the Department of Commerce and Consumer Affairs in strong support of this administration bill, H.B. No. 2319.

This bill improves the change in control provision of the Money Transmitters law, Chapter 489D, Hawaii Revised Statutes ("HRS"), in two ways. First, it expands the class of persons who may apply for the Commissioner's approval of a change of control of a money transmitter licensee. Currently, only a licensee may submit such an application. This is impracticable in hostile takeover situations in which the licensee may be uncooperative. H.B. No. 2319 would resolve this situation by authorizing the persons requesting approval of change in control of a licensee to submit the application.

Second, the bill would enable the Division of Financial Institutions to conduct criminal background checks on persons who are to assume control of the licensee. This would provide important information for the Commissioner's determination whether, pursuant to Section 489D-15, HRS, the persons requesting approval of the change in control, possess the character, and general fitness to control the licensee lawfully and properly, without jeopardizing the interest of the public.

The bill also updates the name of the federal agency that oversees Regulation E, from the Federal Reserve Board to the Consumer Financial Protection Bureau, to avoid confusion.

DFI strongly supports this administration bill, H.B. No. 2319, and respectfully requests it be passed.

Thank you for this opportunity to testify. I would be pleased to respond to any questions that you may have.
