Comments: Of course grocery stores will scream like wounded babies that this will usurp them of their profits, but it shouldn't hurt them very much. Many of those who would go picking in a community food forest probably couldn't afford the prices in the grocery stores, especially if they were imported, no thanks to the Jones Act.

Please note that testimony submitted less than 24 hours prior to the hearing, improperly identified, or directed to the incorrect office, may not be posted online or distributed to the committee prior to the convening of the public hearing.
