Application for Grants

If any item is not applicable to the request, the applicant should enter "not applicable".

I. Background and Summary

This section shall clearly and concisely summarize and highlight the contents of the request in such a way as to provide the State Legislature with a broad understanding of the request. Please include the following:

1. A brief description of the applicant's background;
The Hawaii Agricultural Foundation (HAF) is a non-profit charitable organization created to promote agriculture and farming. Created in 2007 (initially as The Hawaii Farm Bureau Foundation for Agriculture, and renamed The Hawaii Agricultural Foundation in 2010), the mission of HAF is to support and sustain Hawaii's agricultural industry by addressing critical needs and services of farmers and the agricultural industry in Hawaii, and by better connecting the farmers with the community and vice-versa. This involves educational and outreach programs in the community, as well as direct marketing, technical, educational and in-the-field support for farmers.

2. The goals and objectives related to the request;

The goal of the HAF's Farmer, Student and Community Education Program supports Governor Ige's goal to make Hawaii more self-sufficient and to double local food production by 2020. Furthermore, it supports the State Department of Agriculture's published mission to promoting the conservation, development and utilization of agricultural resources in the State. Furthermore, the grant supports the Increased Food Security and Food Self-Sufficiency Strategy Plan that was prepared by DBEDT Planning and DOA that identified a need to build the agricultural workforce and continue the "Green Jobs Initiative" which provides workforce development services for the agricultural, energy, natural resources and related industries in order to increase food production.

The HAF's Farmer Cooperative and Student Education Center will serve two purposes: (1) support new/immigrant farmers with education and resources needed to help them build capacity and scale; (2) encourage farming as a career options by providing an education center where students can gather to learn about agriculture and farming and to meet with real life farmers.

3. The public purpose and need to be served;

With the recent closure of HC&S, the State of Hawaii has more than 36,000 acres available for sustainable and diversified agriculture. The closure will, no doubt, have a major effect on Maui's economy and how the State and A&B proceeds in the transition from sugar toward diversified agriculture is critical to the future of agriculture in our state.

Alexander & Baldwin (parent company to HC&S) has plans for the sugar lands to remain in agriculture. Food crops, energy crops and ranching are among some of the initial initiatives proposed. With Hawaii importing 85% of all the food it needs for consumption, the most compelling use of that land is for food crops. However, based on past history of other plantation closures the success of transition to food crops and diversified agriculture will be a challenge. Part of the plan is for A&B to develop an agricultural park where several independent farmers can farm. However, A&B also acknowledges that farming is a scientific and business enterprise and their current workforce may not be able to transition to these new jobs because they don't have the skill set to be independent farmers.

At the same time, there are many other critical issues facing agriculture and Hawaii's food supply including the closure of Hamakua Springs (Richard Ha, one of the most premiere farmers in our state recently closed his farm), the challenges of our fisheries and new shore fisherman, the difficulties faced in ranching and the misinformation in the public on many of these issues.

As part of this grant, HAF will initiate: 1) a farmer education program to develop a model that will help new and immigrant farmers become self-sufficient and to build capacity; 2) the development of innovative educational programs that will encourage careers in agriculture among our students.

4. Describe the target population to be served; and

The target populations to be served are new and immigrant farmers and K-12 school age students

5. Describe the geographic coverage.

The geographic coverage to be served is Oahu.

II. Service Summary and Outcomes

The Service Summary shall include a detailed discussion of the applicant's approach to the request. The applicant shall clearly and concisely specify the results, outcomes, and measures of effectiveness from this request. The applicant shall:

1. Describe the scope of work, tasks and responsibilities;

The grant will provide the needed funds for HAF to expand its educational programs for farmers and public school students.

Farmer Cooperative and Education Center

On January 1, 2017, HAF assumed responsibility of directly licensing lands on its 220 acre Ag Park in Kunia to 17 immigrant farmers (who were alleged victims of human trafficking). These 17 farmers were initially brought to the HAF Ag Park as part of a human trafficking program from the Pacific Gateway Center about five years ago. While many of the farmers have been successful in growing and selling their produce, they lack the knowledge of good agricultural practices (GAP) that prevent on-farm contamination of fruits and vegetables. For these 17 farmers, HAF would host workshops and work one-on-one to identify and help them with basic good food safety and business practices. At this Farmer Cooperative and Student Education Center it is envisioned that farmers will be able to gather and learn about food safety and business practices through workshops and one-on-one support. It would also serve as an area where farmers could pack and sanitize their produce.

With the grant, HAF will be able to offer school visits to the HAF Ag Park where a garden will be developed to showcase the different kinds of produce grown by farmers in the park. They will also have a hands-on learning opportunity to learn about farming by meeting our farmers at the Center.
