5 on the same day each month; and

6
7 WHEREAS, studies of more than 6,500 patients enrolled in

14 and improves access to care for patients living in rural areas
15 and for patients with limited means of transportation; and

16
17 WHEREAS, pharmacists are well-trained to proactively manage
18 a patient's medication-related needs and medication
19 synchronization allows pharmacists to provide medication therapy

21 greater success because pharmacies are easily accessible; and

22
23 WHEREAS, medication synchronization benefits payers because 24 it improves clinical quality by increasing adherence for 25 members, and payers therefore achieve higher stars ratings and 26 Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services bonus and rebate
